It was just a little more hassle than it was worth.

He was an awesome business partner but he had plenty of stuff he was busy with on his own.

Any idea how expensive these kind of illustrations would be?

<http://bendavis.us/Gallery/chief.jpg> & <http://bendavis.us/Gallery/Day%20Of%20the%20Dead.jpg>

I'm seeking these kind of illustrations, which I would be printing on to T-shirts, hoodies etc.

They are about 100$ each if you are purchasing them to resell.

Will you be able to do $75, if I will be a regular buyer?

Also I believe we have known each other for 2/3 years now, didn't you went by the names: "Grim" & "Raven" on another forum?

Best designer on here, vouch for Ben.

Zen???????????????? - September 8, 2015, 2:42 pm

Looks like a straight forward shop.

GLWS!

suggestion for your website (Click to View)

If you coded your website yourself, very nice. The only part I don't like is hovering over the work to bring it up full image.

If you hover over one and you try and unselect it you just end up hovering over another one which means your screen is still basically full of the image.

Might want to use clicking js instead.

Just a suggestion because I have to take my house completely off the screen to see what else I want to view.

* ?? - September 15, 2015, 7:18 am

Still open for business.

I will get your project done as fast as possible, get in touch with me.
