3. Earning with Ads:-

First of all you must find a Cheap Ad Space which gets allot of traffic.

After you have found one, then think of product which will attract many people towards clicking that Ad. Not worry you not have to create any product.

The attracting thing could be anything! Just think of a product with will attract a lot of traffic. It may be something like “Xbox Live Key Generator” (This suites on a gaming website), if you are placing Ad on a music website then Place an Ad of “Justin Beiber latest Music”

And in the link where the traffic will be redirected after clicking on a particular Ad, place the link we shortened with gca.sh

This will get you a lot of traffic to your link even when you are sleeping and you will earn a lot from this method. Even this is a unsaturated method.

Happy Earnings!

4. Youtube:-

You Tube is one of the greatest site which will help you in earning money.

Simply steal someone's video, using <http://www.keepvid.com> , add a decent description, and make sure to add lots of tags.

For promoting your video, head over to <http://www.u2bviews.com> and start auto-surfing. When cashing out your credits, make sure you enable 'fast views', as this will ensure it gets onto the front page.

And in External links put the Links We shortened by gca.sh... Surely you will get a lot of traffic to your links which will make a lot of money...

Happy Earnings!

5. Social Media:-

Step1:-

Head over to either Facebook or Twitter. Create a NEW profile. Make it look legitimate. Upload a photo etc.

Step2:-

Go to some famous YouTube facebook pages. Such as pewdiepie or KSI or something along those lines.

Step3:-

Simply spam your links there in some legitimate looking way

Happy Earnings!

6. Tips And Tricks:-

Tip 1:-

Don't hesitate to use more than one method

Tip 2:-

Create more than one of the things you're doing. E.g.: Multiple adds, Multiple Facebook/YouTube Accounts , etc

Tip 3:-

More time you spent, More you Earn..

7. Conclusion:-

These methods are immensely effective, if you put a lot of time into them, the more bucks you get. If one method fails to work, try the next. Believe me at first you will not get a lot of clicks at the first! As at my first day I only earned 30$, I tried every day and achieved more experience in this stuff and nowadays I earn at least 60$ Everyday by this methods. The More Time you spent the more you earn!

Like seriously 5 threads below, same exact thread.

And before that, it was posted by JuanCarlos (I think original thread).

And this is what I wrote about it:

(Dec 22, 2014 05:10 AM)Azraelstear Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I see there's just another thread about Gca.sh and Reddit/kik method.

And someone even though "Hmm, it would be good to make paid e-book from this public method"

So here are reasons why this method SUX.

1. This method was already posted by juancarlos. Please don't repost it.
2. Gca.sh is UBERannoying, with 2 pop-ups, intermediate AD promoting Malware
3. Gca.sh captcha doesn't load often in Chrome making people unable to go to content.
4. any less annoying URL shortener makes much more counted views.
5. With malware infested intermediate landing pages, and pure money making motivation won't get you far in Reddit
6. Reddit readers are learning fast and most WILL STOP CLICKING on Gca.sh
7. MOST OF REDDIT traffic is from US. So it's plain stupidity to choose Gca.sh with their pathetic FLAT RATE and high losses due to captcha and malware infested intermediate ad.

MAIN PROBLEM:

If I have thousands of horny visitors I would be stupid to monetize them with Gca.sh when I can drive them to website with Adult dating or Ex-GF affiliate links and content.

As most of Reddit traffic is US, they have high GDP per capita and high computer skills, are used to paypal, paying with CC's ... they are one of very few nations that actually spend money online regularly Around 60% US traffic. Any penny method is waste of effort.

Alexa have only 2-3M toolbars. Similarweb is from Israelis and according to guys that deal with them, they have data from over 50M computers so they are more accurate.

Slenderman_ - December 22, 2014, 2:21 pm

If I try ALL these methods, I'll get $100 daily or for one method I'll get $100?

sonex - December 22, 2014, 2:23 pm

Clearly you don't take me seriously though. All 3 of you won't copyy/paste the same methods around the place, 1 thread is more than enough. This one and recent one are both getting closed.
