Approved by me he is a leader of the marketing section and he is going to make an invite only recruitment thread so anyone who is interested feel free to write your application :)

Herbo - December 26, 2014, 6:41 pm

Vouch for orchid, really cool dude!

I know this sector will do good!

Good luck with it!

But wait, weren't buy ins just opened?

What makes your marketing sector better than the others?

What experiences do you have in marketing that makes you even worthy of running a marketing sector.

Hydra - December 26, 2014, 6:43 pm

Wait, wasn't the group going to be rented out? Or is it under new leadership and being ran like this?

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4386296>

Why should we accept you? (Minimum 400 words):

I'm a great marketer, I know how to bring the money in when its needed and when to save it even if its burning my pockets. I should get accepted for a chance to see if im worthy and I promise I won't let the leaders or group members down. My decision is to become a big part in this sector and even learn from the 'elders' if you want to call it that in the group already. I'd like to test some of the products that the members have and give tips to them on how to make an bit more revenue in their sales.

What are you willing to do for the community within our group?:

- Giveaways
- Contests
- Private Marketing Tips via skype

Why should we accept you? (Minimum 400 words):

I think you should accept me for many of things. I have an obsession over money. I try to act professional when conducting business. I like to do my thing and not deal with the drama bullshit. I believe in the products should speak for itself, no need to buy my publicity in advertisements. I'm a pretty generous person as well. I've given people free Spotify accounts, free Netflix accounts, money for gifts for their loved ones and even gift awards. As you can see here :

I'm really unsure on the length or word count of this, I'm assuming and hoping this is the over the required amount. Anyways, I appreciate you reading my application and hope for the best.

What are you willing to do for the community within our group?:

I'm willing to do pretty much anything. I'd love to start products or giveaways with people.

I like having discussions with the group I'm in now and just communicate with others.

What products do you have for sale?: Help manage one of the best stressers on HF. Another product to drop soon would be my account generator. At the moment, I currently have a thread in the Giveaways section where members can request accounts.

Why should we accept you? (Minimum 250 words, you can do video or audio too.): I think I should be accepted because I've learned a lot from a marketing standpoint from Dorrance and I look to transfer that into my own services. On another note, I feel like if I'm accepted into this group all the current members will be more than willing to share their success stories and what worked for them when they were in the position I'm in right now. One of my favorite things to do is to learn from people that have already surpassed expectations placed on them either by themselves or their peers. I hope that some members would be willing to share their expertise in the field that I'm trying to become a professional in. Along with that, I'd be more than happy to share my knowledge with topics that others may not have much knowledge in. I know a decent amount about servers and scripts and even a little bit involving coding. Now, I'm not saying that I'm a professional at all in these fields, but I certainly have a working knowledge and understanding of how these moving parts work together. If you'd be willing to give me a chance, I'll show you that I have the drive and the determination to prove everyone wrong that thinks otherwise. I wanted to end this why I should be accepted portion of the app with a sincere thank you to Orchid and the other members that are involved in reading other these applications.

What are you willing to do for the community within our group?: Host giveaways and also public threads with information regarding certain topics of interest.

In this case, there's mutual benefit for everyone involved if the group willingly shares their knowledge with each other.

No need to if you are a part of a marketing sector, just show your experience and leave.

About Me: My name is Levi, I am a 15 year old from British Columbia, Canada.

I have always had a passion for money ever since I was 8. I always did what I could to make more money.

I didn't really need the money, I just liked the thought that I had money and when I wasn't making money I was thinking of more ways to make even more money with the money I made. As a child I often played video games like Mario, Grand Theft Auto, and Runescape and to this day I am still an avid gamer and I am addicted to making money.

Why should we accept you: First of all, not only could I release products, giveaways, and contests endorsed by the Revolution, I could bring tutorials, friendship and more to the sub-forum. Secondly, I have talked to multiple leaders in the Nightfall sub-forum before and they're very laid back and I wouldn't mind having him lead the group in the right direction, and I would be more than happy to be lead by Orchid.

Why do you want to join the Revolution: Well due to the new sectors and more members joining I'd like to be a part of the group as it is getting more active and I feel like I'd be able to fit in perfectly with the rest of the members.

I believe I should be invited into the group because I always consider myself as a proper marketer all around.

For months I developed in learning to ways to be able to market my products to a point where almost everyone would be interested in purchasing.

I've been in many marketing groups (Official & Unofficial) that were able to not only increase the number of people I will be able to work with but also increase the aspect and views on how you think when making a product.

I would like to be in the Marketing Sector of the group because every marketing group I have been in has been a success and helped me in a great deal in online business and Real life situations involving Entrepreneurship & Business Classes I take.

I am a 17 year old Teenage boy, I am currently a senior in high school which can sometimes whole some of my free time as I don't have the same as before.

I try to be as active as possible as I have products currently being sold on several sites and it would be a bad business if I wasn't around to being able to support my customers who have purchased my products.

Later on in the future I plan on opening more products that I have never produced before and see how it goes.

I hope I get accepted into the group because I love meeting new people that has the passion in marketing like I do.

Thanks
