Hey guys. I was just wondering how much this account is worth.

Games

Tools

Far Cry is on sale on Steam atm (£9), please don't judge your account off what you put on it. Most accounts are valued at the sales price and then 50% from that.

Don't sell your account. Many skids are just 13 years old who only get $10/month to buy something at their school cafeteria. Obviously, expect some appraisals of around $15 for an account that is worth $1000.

My personal advice; don't sell it.

I don't use it at all. I'm still looking to get rid of it. I don't understand why the account value would be based off of a temporary sale price.

I'm pretty sure it's only for like 2 more days.
