Thread: Official Craigslist Method Guide

Jay Rock - December 28, 2014, 11:34 am

Alot of people have been struggling with this method and I'd like to help them out

First off you need to create an account. Make a fake email everything. Make sure you have a phone number to verify the account.

Verify Phone numbers - I've been using the app TextPlus to verify my numbers. It's working as of now. If that stops working you can always go to Buyers Bay and someone can do it for you for a couple of bucks. If all that doesn't work you can always use Fiverr to purchase about 10 phone numbers for 5$

Once you done that go to a major city in the US or UK. I like to do NYC and LA. Theres others like Dallas, Chicago etc. Click Post to classifieds -> Personal Romance -> NSA -> W4M . Then start writing up your ad.

Important. Do not include these types of words in your ads, because it will be auto deleted by Craigslist. ' money, pay, nudes, pics, camshow' etc you get the point. If you do this you will get ghosted. I like to set up my ads like this. " Heyyy I'm super bored on this_ night and was wondering if anyone is down for an email chat?? Hit me up ^-^!" You can also say in the beginning ' I had plans with my friends but they bailed on me' So it looks a little more believable. Make sure you upload a selfie or something. I've been experimenting with pics or without a pic and I've been getting more traffic with a pic. You will now start to get many pedos after you, takes about 30 mins. Expect 100+.

How to reel them in: Many newbies problem is that they copy and paste the same thing like "Hey!! I'm selling my nudes. Intrested? xx" Don't do that. Start a convo with them to act real. Just like ' Hey' ' How are you ' etc..Then reel them in.

What is ghosted? Ghosted means that your ad wont be seen by anyone. This occurs if you post in more than one city, use words like I mentioned etc. If this happens use a VPN and start fresh.

This is all you really need to know to do the CL method.

Shout out to boxxy who's help thread first introduced me to the method months ago. In the beginning he always helped me with my questions.

If anyone needs help still post below ?

Intern - December 28, 2014, 11:37 am

Gold but Old :P ... This can work but you're not gonna get a huge amount of traffic like before :P good luck everyone

amandaking - December 28, 2014, 12:26 pm

do you keep trading emails with them? or do you just say it all in one email?

Handsome Banana - December 28, 2014, 12:31 pm

This is a great place to start for any newbie looking to get into ewhoring. I remember getting $20 from guys on there for just a basic picture pack. Another key aspect you need is a good story line to make them pay and not just say 'selling nudes' after your starter convo. And 'my dad is in hospital and needs money' isn't a very imaginative story so avoid using it xD

Thanks for the thread OP and good luck out there.

Trade a couple of emails with them. It increases your chances.

@Doingit. Thanks for those comments

amandaking - December 28, 2014, 12:44 pm

thanks....one more q:

do you just keep it on the craigslist email forwarder or do you give them your "real" email?

Personally I keep it on the craigslist forwarder. I don't know about anyone else, but it still works for me. And no problem I'll always be a viable for help

elazer - December 29, 2014, 7:36 pm

Thx for the share j an oldie but goldie method indeed

CromiellX - December 29, 2014, 7:39 pm

Nice guide mate !

Regardless of how many times people have seen it, there's always a new person who's gunna find this useful

keysikg - December 29, 2014, 7:53 pm

I am very interested in trying to ewhore craigslist, making some nice bucks with kik so far, but craig seems great. But I can't verify phone. I tried Textplus but it won't go past registration stage. I also tried heywire from other suggestion but not receiving any messages there. Any help?

Jake Johnson - December 29, 2014, 7:54 pm

Craigslist is a good place to start out for some people to learn some of the basics before they jump straight into some of the other methods out there they might want to try.

Tru indeed i agree like myself.

Real w was my lane but e is better

For many reasons

I honestly have no idea what you said. But if your asking do I give a freebie. Yes only one and non nude..mostly a teasing selfie ?

Yeah heywire and text now don't work. I used text plus twice today it works for me. Maybe reinstall the app if you can't go past registration?

You don't need a number for textpkus that's the point of it. Register by email ?

Well Craighslist asks you to verify your phone number first. How can I do that if I don't have number to write there? :P

elazer - December 29, 2014, 8:04 pm

K thx jay but how do u consider a score?

Create a textplus number. Then use the textplus number for criagslist. Get a call in textplus answer it and plug the verification code and you should be good!?

keysikg - December 29, 2014, 8:11 pm

I think I am stupid as fuck xd I can't find where to create or see my textplus number. Can't believe I can't find this xd

Edit; found it :D

Jay Rock - December 29, 2014, 8:12 pm

I'm sorry but it's very clear how to make one..you might want to ask someone else..

elazer - December 29, 2014, 8:15 pm

Can u use txt plus multiple times? Or only once then create a new # if possible ??

Jay Rock - December 29, 2014, 8:17 pm

Yeah just create new accounts. Simple make a quick yahoo email adress takes minutes :)

keysikg - December 29, 2014, 8:27 pm

Yeah, thanks a lot for answers, I get number to work and when I wanted to verify, my textplus says please check your internet connection, lol. 6 AM and i am getting fucked by some non sense bugs. Thanks anyway :)

(Dec 29, 2014 10:43 PM)Constellation Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) How do you eventually bring up the fact that you want money for nudes? Can you give me an example?

You either take a direct approach.

[You] Heyyy !<3 I'm glad you wanted to talk ! I just wanted to let you know I'm selling my nudes if you're interested in buying them !(;
(Show non nude preview)

Or take a sob story approach

[You] Hey babe ! I'm sorry to bother you like this but I'm struggling so bad right now and I need help with money. I need to get my phone bill paid and don't have enough to finish paying for it . Is there any way you can help me out ? I promise I'll return the favor ;)

Probably not the best examples, but it should paint a good picture !

OnlyTigerAlive - December 29, 2014, 11:56 pm

My listings always get removed which is bullshit

Dr.Hurlu - December 30, 2014, 6:23 am

First time I created an account it required me to verify by phone which I have and then my ad got ghosted.

Second time I created an account (on a different IP) it didn't even ask me to verify by phone and my add went live (did not get ghosted).

So be careful it might be the VPN that you're using effing you up.

LOL. First, don't talk about selling or anything money related.

Second: Why the fuck do you put x's after like every sentence. I know people say to do that, but you're over using it.

" :(x, picx, Bye!xxx " Yeah no.. Use it properly. Only saying once in a while, after several sentences or so.
