Cycle - December 29, 2014, 4:52 pm

REPORTED'S PROFILE: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2545116>

Hi,

I was trying to sell my knife earlier today. I got a message from this user saying he was interested, and to add him on Skype. (<https://puu.sh/dPcN3/c5372106f1.png>)

I did so, we then agreed on a price and he suggested Phyber. I suggested we use Package since he was available at the time. This user then strongly pushed Phyber saying he had already paid the fees. (<https://puu.sh/dPdf9/59ea3ab014.jpg>)

Naturally, I was like: "Whatever, Phyber is trusted", but I was wary.

So this guy adds me and "phyberzhf" to a Skype group chat (<https://puu.sh/dPdQP/ab4fc3b805.png>)
That Gyazo link is a screenshot of Phyber logged into HF.

The way he was so strongly preferential to using Phyber, and paid the fees before I consented to doing so (supposedly) is pretty weird. Him and his mate are clearly trying to pull off a scam. If this serves nothing but to warn others, that's cool.

EDIT: Someone requested the Gyazo link:

Some good banter:

VenomCSGO - December 29, 2014, 4:54 pm

Doesn't seem too legit. How do you know that's him?

Aurora - December 29, 2014, 4:55 pm

"Can't PM on phone"? What kind of lame excuse is that? Of course you can login to HF on your mobile and PM.

Its even better that he can take a screenshot and send a link to that but not PM.

WeNeedToGo - December 29, 2014, 4:57 pm

Even though I don't like Tom Hardy. This isn't sufficient proof that it is him. Sorry.

Skitchy - December 29, 2014, 4:58 pm

"Can't PM on phone"

Bullshit.

Reeks of bullshit, very good that you didn't fall for anything like this.

Cycle - December 29, 2014, 4:58 pm

Its super obvious, but people still fall for it. Hopefully this gets a black-mark against his name.

Wires - December 29, 2014, 4:59 pm

Lol why is it always Phyber ?

Mr. Lahey - December 29, 2014, 5:00 pm

That guy brought some coins from me earlier, seemed cool. Sad to see this..

I had like 3 Phyber impersonators on my skype fl. I accidentally invited the wrong one and I lost my 2$ <https://gyazo.com/1fe06b744007cfd698ed58c0721b44cc>

I do have the real phyber as he has MM'd me for me before.

<https://gyazo.com/7cb12fe5dc588ec393cef07daf25d25c>

this was nothing but a misunderstanding that this skid is trying to make a big deal out of.

So he's MM'd for you before - but now he's suddenly got a random new Paypal under a random new name. Close, but no cigar.

Further to that, why the fuck would you send the money to a random account?

Can we also see a full screenshot of that $2 payment please - the whole window I mean.

Alright so I posted a thread here

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4606068>

and he PM'd me saying he will sell me a knife for $100

[img]http://www.dank.pw/20206.png[/img]

then I tell him to add me on skype, which he does and I kept asking him to PM me to prove it is him, which he never does, then adds me to a skype group with him and his impersonator account
