Thread: The problems with HackerCraft - Need Opinions

Griev?us - January 2, 2015, 12:26 am

Since Peach thinks everything I say is wrong and wants to shoot down everything I say.. I'll just post it here and let you guy's give your opinions.

Flaws of the server I noticed just by joining: Inactivity from both the Owner, Staff, and Members.
Lack of entertainment, there's nothing to do.
Lack of anything custom, literally everything Peach has done is a copy/paste.
Lack of communication.

Problem with StaffUltimateGamer, rarely on and doesn't do anything. Horrible decisions and no prior experience it seems.

Peach, rarely on. Nothing to really say here besides not much is being done.

Some of you are saying the only reason HackerCraft was active before was because of the award.. well.. doesn't this kind've display that there is nothing to do on the server therefore people leave? You can't use a damn award for an excuse, make a better server.

How do the servers that have nothing to start off of, become more active?
It's simple, that make their server fun and entertaining and/or have something custom.
HackerCraft lacks from all of that.

There's nothing to give a spark off to new players besides the spawn.
There's nothing entertaining, you expect us to do the same exact thing we can do in single-player.

Discuss below if you think these are valid or not.

I agree, played on the server for about an hour and wanted to kill myself the entire time.

You live on hackercraft?

You must be sleeping a lot then as I've gone on for nearly a full day without seeing you on before.

Basicly we are still in beta but you can join if you want. Beta will end the day Omniscient has the time to finish the agreement. Not to insult but I wonder why noone noticed it's back. Maybe because it's not in sticky ?

Does it matter if it's a sticky?

If people were interested, they'd find the thread.

Griev?us - January 2, 2015, 1:14 am

What are some of the issues you see with the servers?

What are you opinions on the list/reasoning's I gave above?

Chickendipper - January 2, 2015, 2:52 am

The inactivity by staff isn't all true: Detoxicate is on literally whenever I am.

I agree that Peach and Apple aren't on very much, but I believe this to be a time zone issue as they come on late at night (for me) and they are always on when I go off (between 12pm and 2am GMT)

The lack of anything custom is partially true - I know that Apple worked hard on a variety of plugins, but I don't know exactly how much is "custom" besides /fly

There is a severe lack of activity overall. My old faction members don't play anymore, so it is almost like it is just me. We can thank a lot of reasons, such as Peach being corrupt in V3, the downtime between V2 and V3, the downtime between V3 and V4, and the loss of things such as McMMO and the map in V4 (to name a few); despite all of this, I think Peach can make it work again (as a more intense factions server than V2 was)

Likewise, there is a severe lack of communication.

I'm going to be honest here, I believe an award is actually one of the reasons why the server has gone to shit. Why? Because a shit ton of people played HC for the money (through awards, selling EM etc.). Without the motive for an active economy, there won't really be so much of a server.

Another problem with the server is that there are three main factions that have the biggest advantage (including mine huehuhe). Those that start the earliest have the best advantage, although this is the case for all servers. Not much we can do on that front.

1. Detoxicate doesn't do shit, shouldn't even be staff.

Isn't staff to be someone who set's an example?

Well.. damn, it's a shame how the first time I went on the server someone who joined, a BRAND NEW member, said he was a scammer.

<https://hackforums.net/search.php?action=results&sid=ce7c3b5b826307251e223451dddb1d8c&sortBy=lastpost&order=desc>

Great staff member, amazing example.

2. Custom to Peach is copy and pasting shit from planet minecraft.
That's not custom.

3. So.. apparently if I was to open a server and not have the award I wouldn't get any players is what you're saying? ???

4. Faction Overpowering - That's for any server as you said.

Onwards to the next, just noticed Peach can't take criticism it seems.

Detoxicate - January 2, 2015, 6:07 am

-Inactivity from both the Owner, Staff, and Members.

(I'm online every day for most of the day)

-Lack of entertainment, there's nothing to do.

(What kinds of suggestions do you have for things to do?)

-Lack of anything custom, literally everything Peach has done is a copy/paste.

(This is true, we could have someone build custom things and switch to them once they are ready...

I'll talk to him about this)

-Lack of communication.

(I also agree, I would like the community to be included and know what is currently being worked on and ideas for the server more than they are. Also in game to associate and have a better time.... I try to talk to everyone and even help players out with things)

Problem with Staff

Apple is currently away and Peach lives in a different time zone I think, he has been working on a town/player shop area though and since he's the only one who can really do anything while Apple is away the progress is slowed.

I can't do anything for the server because we removed MODS from having creative, world edit or anything to be abused because of people crying and now you guys are crying over things not getting done.

He was not a brand new member, he's a member who's been repfucked countless times, has his own scam reports and even a negative reputation from Omniscient himself and he's known as Tom... You both came online together and started talking crap on HC... Again, HF and HC are two different things. This is NOT a sales thread, so do NOT go around posting a scam report link for something 2 years old.

Most of the day?

I've been on for about 12 hours, don't say you're online most of the day when you're online for 4 hours bud.

Big difference.

-Lack of entertainment, there's nothing to do.

(What kinds of suggestions do you have for things to do?)

There's tons of things you guy's can add in, I'm not going to make a list because Peach will again, turn them down like he does with everything I say.

The server won't have any advances if both higher-up's are offline 3/4 of the time.

I have not seen you online hardly at all in the past 2 days, I'll see if we can pull the information on who's been online how long... I was online from 7AM - 10PM yesterday, it's 7AM again and I'm online now.

Apple is away but even if he wasn't I think Peach and Apple both are on usually around the same time frame, so I agree we need someone online in between these times.

I've popped in several times within the past 3 days, all those times you've been on for a hour then logged off then you were no-where to be found.

At least be honest and don't say you're online most of the day.

Griev?us - January 2, 2015, 6:43 am

Another issue.. you can't even TNT into a factions base.

The TNT literally exploded everything else besides their claimed land.. lovely server.

Dood - January 2, 2015, 9:06 am

I'm actually really disappointed in this server now. I've hopped on for a few minutes 4 or 5 times yesterday, and there are only 4-5 people online AT MOST. Furthermore, out of my visits, Peach was only online once, and he ignored me.

Reasons why I don't like this server:

1. Inactive: No people online (to be expected), and there aren't any names that I don't recognize from the old server. There was no indicator that the server was actually back online; the only reason I knew that HC was back up was that the server showed up as online in my servers list.

2. No motivation to play: There's absolutely no reason that I should play on this server when there's almost nothing different from other servers (I like the player list where it shows the heads, though). This makes the server almost a distasteful prospect, especially when there's almost nobody else online.

3. Extremely expensive ranks for a small server: The server manages less than 5 people at a time, including staff members. Why is there a rank that costs $250? Donations should be for the support of the server, not for a crazy advantage over everyone else.

Ben Chang - January 2, 2015, 9:24 am

I agree with the inactivity, also Detoxicate, you're a mod, I agree that you shouldn't have more OP powers, but the servers might have to add an admin? Peach and Apple seem to be quite inactive.

I also agree with that theres nothing special; theres also nothing special about the servers except, /fly, which I hate. I

And as Dood stated above, extremely expensive ranks for a small server?

Turtle - January 2, 2015, 9:44 am

Honestly we need to get away from factions and start another gamemode, this will never work..

Dont feel like playing since no one is online, I could play on another server with a lot more players.

Detoxicate - January 2, 2015, 9:59 am

Biggest issue is the low player count, but just look how many of you are saying "I was on for a few minutes and left because there are no players"... I've seen at least 6 different people post this, maybe more and a lot more who feel this way... If you would just come and stay, more would stay too.

I completely agree with a lot of what you guys are saying, I'll speak to Peach as soon as he comes online.

1. HF != HC; Detox is a very nice person and he does work hard. He has given me (among other people) countless things for free, and he hasn't even had to use his moderator powers once yet due to the severe lack of people.

2. Apple has made custom plugins.

3. If your server was Hackercraft, yes.

Poutine - January 2, 2015, 10:47 am

I really think we should reinvent hackercraft.

Here on HF, we have tons of java developers . What about making a privateclient+launcher and add custom mods and tons of awesome shet.

I would LOVE to shoot people with guns and have cannons and special defensive items.

Also, server with obsidian and tnt and raids are outdated. Just change the gameplay and remove the raiding for faction. People will play more and will show nice buildings. Anyway thats my opinion.

Maybe 2 servers ? 1 is anarchy with tons of explosive and cheats allowed and insults. The other one has no tnt and raid but is more of a showoff server. I'm sure you can connect the economies together

Servers in BETA & and i'm in talks with peach about offering a better dedicated solution for him. Hence why there's also a-lot of things still left to do BETA's been open a week.

There's not any rush at the minute to make you buy ranks or such like robust did.

There are a few people including myself who don't mind the player count at the minute as its only in BETA.

The way its taking longer is the fact he's not rushing to open past BETA and be full of fucking issues like robust did.

Not forgetting he ran off with the money and only opened it for the money.

RoboBlawck - January 2, 2015, 3:54 pm

Has anyone tried advertising yet? I think more players in the server should be top priority. There are so many ways to advertise now a days. Some server list websites even offer to put your server in the top list if you pay.

On another note, so basically the majority of posts here are staff and players agrueing on whether or not they did a good job or not. Honestly, agrueing is never the way to go. If you see a player that notices the problem, then you address the problem and fix it. Not agrue about how you claim to already fix it without any proof. Also, if the player that is complaining about the problem is doing it based off hate(haters) then you simply ignore them. Lastly, a strong player base is essential because it's a community server. If you do not have a strong player base, you do not have a strong community. If you don't have a strong community, then you basically have your self a extremely weak system.

tl;dr Members need to be humble, staff needs to be humble, and hackercraft needs more players.

Edward Snowden. - January 2, 2015, 6:33 pm

I will explain the rank scheme. The main purpose is to get a slight advantage such as mcmmo multiplier. I promised to Omniscient to keep all current rank that people bought to robust. If I downgrade everyone to pow3r which was 19.99$ do you think they will be happy ? That something that buzz me.

Second : Inactive ? You guys dare to call me inactive while I'm always on the server watching up. Maybe because we are vanished to check the progress make you think we are not there. Today Kondotose prevented an economy exploit as I OP him during the time I was away. He de-OP himself after the given time. Apple is gone for 2 weeks true, slow the update ? No. I'm getting new plugins setup by programmer I paid. 400$ was their prices to guarantee a partnership with their team for the 1st bundle. How many power rank does that cost :? ye. Also I agree there nothing much atm to do, then you said no no this wasnt cause of award i swear, liar. Tbh if everyone think like you and say wow 5 ppl online I dont play, how do you expect it to grow ? I want to make the 1 , 2, 3 , 4 rank buyable with Ingame Money to stimulate the economy and to give a goal. We are currently setting things up to get Omniscient agreement. Guess you guys didn't read the sticky. We opened it instead of keeping it whitelisted to allow player to start earlier. Guess you can choke with this Xmas gift. You guys want communication but none post on the thread I do. Not even half came back to check the server (the one with rank). I was expecting it as server always shutdown with money hungry ppl.

You guys cry for rank price ? Then I'll put it all down and you handle the monthly fee of 300$? Deal. Its like HF: you have guys who donate 1k for fun, so why is it forbidden on a server ? I'm not going to OverPower the rank of 250$. This is not even an option.

Have fun,

Peach.

The new Hackercraft is trash. Peach tries to appeal members with a nice spawn but honestly the plugins are utter shit straight from Bukkit Forums and the staff looks like they couldn't maintain a 1st grade class for 10 minutes let alone a server.

Why is everybody bitching on them? They do their best to make a server for all of you, all I read is how bad it is... If you don't like it, give some suggests instead of trying making people kill themselves. I haven't tried HC yet, but I'll give it a chance if I have a new mouse.

HackerCraft is shit. Some of the factions are so OP that its hard to start out and even if you do have a few people there will always be those factions that will come in there and ruin it all with their 553838448397 TNT cannons and shit. It is so useless to even make a base. The "Hackers" are unbearable on it.

u know, you shouldn't judge a server by its name

It's actually really annoyingly hard to start and get spawners but it gives you something to do/aim for apart from the award.

Well, first of all, no where did any of us try and "make people kill themselves." Second of all, we've all pointed out some glaring points in the server. For starters, Peach could try and fix the points that were brought up. There are a few obvious solutions to many of the problems brought up. No people? Do some advertising. High prices on ranks? Lower the prices a bit or have a sale.

I, as a consumer, don't need Peach to ensure a fun Minecraft server; there are thousands of other fun servers. However, Peach needs me as a consumer to ensure the survival of the server. Peach, instead of complaining that the players don't give you suggestions on what to fix, actively ask people what they think is missing. Ask not what your community can do for you, but what you can do for your community.

You're right here, but some people were saying shit without any valid arguments.
