HEy guys,

Tried a bunch of CL email harvesters and none seem to work anymore. Has anyone had recent success with any? Also is there anything out there that will expose all craigslist info like phone number etc?

Lets just say i have pretty substantial evidence that my girl is getting fucked off craigslist and wanna prove it once and for all. ho's i tell ya

thanks,
Chuck

Simply craigslist don't publish the emails directly anymore.

In order to respond an ad you have to click a button and copy the temporary mail they give to you. harvesters are a little help ?

so guess there is no way to uncover the phone number connected to a verified account or emial that is being forwarded to?
