The 1st week will be mostly bugs fix oriented. It's awesome how simples plugins can be such bitch.

Baby steps mayne.

I'd rather wait a month for the tidy and nice finished product than a few days for a half-assed server.

Simply ask the community what they want, you're doing fine so far.

Consider buying a sticky for attention, it's cheap.

Server will be back online shortly. I just received the PlayerShop update. This will be a cool feature trust me.

I'm doing maintenance over the server. Many miss the original gameplay.
