Thread: 2015 ranked season - official ETA

Temp - January 13, 2015, 5:30 pm

Earlier today, about 4 hours from now, Riot has answered most of the competitive players questions: When is season 5 kicking in?

It starts on January 21st

Here's something I noted through my reading:

Quote:in previous seasons, placement games were way more impactful than regular season games Which means that the 10 placement games won't cause established players to swing as far up or down because of good or bad luck.

Obviously, they're still adding a soft ranked reset which means you're most likely going to end up somewhere lower than where you used to be.

Read it yourself here.
