Listen.

Whatever the owner of a group feels like doing with his/her group is their business.
Groups don't have to meet any standard of all of you HF users.
Groups don't have to contribute to the forums at all.

The owner paid for the group, and can make it a sock worshipping group that only has 3 members if he/she wants to.

You should stop expecting groups to do anything for you, because they don't have to.
Also, stop hating on AnimeFan just because they like Anime.
I don't even like Anime a whole lot, there's maybe one or two Animes I can tolerate, but you don't see me calling them retarded tentacle Hentai lovers.

Grow the fuck up, everything is not about you.

Yeah, honestly got surprised by some of the bigger faces I've seen around turning out to be ignorant cunts from another thread here.

Yeah, that honestly made me lose some respect for people I actually respected.

Hopefully you'll add me as a leader.

We could have it to ourselves, and maybe invite Omni

Honestly, anyone who gives a fuck about what shows you watch is a brat and won't survive in the real world. Who cares?!

I'm just tired of these group threads in general.

I miss the old groups of HF.

Too much drama nowadays.

I know.

You can't be in a group without people breathing down your neck and flaming you anymore.
