Thread: Get paid to write articles!

MaskingMyUsername - January 17, 2015, 3:20 am

I'm not revealing too much information on what the articles are to be about, apart from the fact that it requires someone tech savvy (shouldn't be too hard to find, right?)

The articles will need to be detailed, optimised for search engines and grammatically perfect.

If you're interested, please post here

Skyped this user now. Seems very cool about this, and I am glad to be partnered with him!
Can't wait to start!

I'm still looking for writers!
Please only contact me if you believe yourself to be a skilled writer!

It would be nice if you told people how much you are going to be paying per 500 words.

Prices are discussed privately in Skype. The current offers I've had average at about $11.

How much are you offering for this. Let me know. Thanks
