Thread: Runescape section revamp

VGM2021 - January 17, 2015, 2:04 pm

Hello HFer's

The suggest I want to make is that the runescape section to be changed.

I suggest that There are sub-boards added to the runescape board.

For example:

Runescape(main board)

 Botting(sub)

 RSPS's(sub)

 Market(sub)(possibly where everyone sells/buys and trades RSGP,bonds,membership)

Reason why I made this suggestion:

There wouldn't be enough activity to keep the three different subboards alive. It's better that they're all in one section to keep the activity up and stop it from dying.

MrOrang - January 17, 2015, 2:09 pm

It would probably not be enough activity as Aceman said, you could probably suggest them as thread prefixes though.

QoL?? - January 17, 2015, 2:10 pm

This has been denied before because of how little activity it already gets. There isn't enough activity to spread over 3 different sections.

Definitely support it, the section turned into shit and this could make it better. It's a very active section.

Maybe ditch the RSPS sub-board and it will still alive for sure.

Omni is not a fan of too many sub-boards. Don't know if that'll work. You'd have to find 100 threads per section for him to consider it. (At least that's how it used to work.)

As for the marketplace, we have a virtual items marketplace where all that can go.

Aceman is right.

I don't think there's much more to say.

Yes, but only because there are different topics that can be talked about. There aren't enough posts to warrant 3 sub sections. It would divide a small sub forum into 3 smaller parts and thus look like it's even more empty which will then lead to less posts altogether.

I would love to see more activity in anything RS related. I post in there everyonce in awhile about RSPS's, but there are just so many other RS communities that are better so no one feels the need to have one here.

Also, runescape has a very active market so I'm sure if a sub-board was added for that it would be active but yea the virtual items marketplace is fine for me :P.

Everyone wants their own Marketplace for their type of product/game currency, but that's what the prefixes are for. I think those are enough to make it easy to sift through the threads and find something that pertains to you.

Not a lot of activity in the RS section.

Lucky their even is one.

I enjoy it, the way it is now.

Slenderman™ - January 17, 2015, 2:58 pm

I support since the normal Runescape section is full of this botting shit.

Duyere - January 17, 2015, 3:36 pm

No support. The section is fine how it is. There is hardly any misc talk in the section.

Positive - January 17, 2015, 6:39 pm

The runescape section isn't as big as it used to be. I see the market rising but not the actual discussion section.

I recommend suggesting more tags in that section instead of actual subforums. There isn't enough activity at the moment.
