They're giving it away, all they require is to like a third party page/share a link in Facebook/Twitter/G+ and you get it

Crunchyroll requires a payment authorization for the trial so you can use a PayPal account with nothing or a credit card with a cent inside

Here it is <https://deals.androidheadlines.com/sales/free-anime-for-30-days-from-crunchyroll>

It'll be over in around 2 days

Have fun ?

This is good but I don't use crunchyroll anymore because one day I looked for an anime witch they did not have so now I just use kissanime. Anyway I have like 150 cracked accounts from when I started using crunchyroll and don't need them so if people want I can just give them out.

ps. I'm now hijacking your thread to give out crunchyroll accounts don't hate me pm me if anyone wants some.

I never would've said no to free stuff, atleast when it comes to watching anime in good quality.

Atleast someone will get happy by this, I hope ^_^

Used crunchy alot before kissanime came into my life.
