Your forum only has 29 members. How can the group be worth $35, if your forum isn't even worth $1

I'm not quite sure why I would join that group, if I can actually join one of the groups here.

The hosting is worth $20. And we've already made $50 selling three groups. So yeah. ?

Because it's free. It's easier to win and do nothing. ?

You could work on your site speed. It can definately be improved.

Quite ironical that your favicon is a potato. Are you hosting the site on one ?

Not to be mean, yet your forum is incredibly slow, the domain isn't that great, and it only has a few members. This forum isn't worth money mate.

The forum isn't slow for me or any of my members. ?
