Thread: Purchasing L33T.

Midraks - January 18, 2015, 1:32 pm

Hello,

I found some member in HF that want to buy something from me using Paypal, I don't have Paypal so the amount we are dealing is just $20 so I said him that I cannot accept Paypal because I'm limited, but I want to upgrade myself to L33T in HF.

If he purchase me the L33T via Paypal, and he chargeback. Does my account get closed or just L33T removed?

Your account would be closed if he was to charge back on the payment.

Goodluck on getting l33t

Pretty sure you cannot buy L33T via Paypal anymore if I'm right?

Your account gets closed.

Your account gets closed.

The coinpayments link accepts BTC/Paypal

HMM, This is a big risk for me if I agree to him upgrade myself?

You may go through with this at your own risk. If he charges back, your account has a 99.9% chance of getting closed.

Your choice.

I am a trusted exchanger here at HF, I'll do this for you. Look at my thread & reputation page. If you're hesitant to deal with someone else.

I don't think you understood the OP.

OP is saying that is selling an item. His Paypal is limited so he can't accept that currency, so he is having the user just buy him l33t since he was going to do it anyways.
