What is Alphas.sx?

Alphas is a Discussion, Gaming, And Whitehat Board that with only a month open has amazing stats already, and are increasing everyday.

Why should I Join? You should join as it not only would it be a very good investment (without having to actually buy an upgrade), but it would be a very fun experience for you!

Cool! How can I join! Just sign up at Alphas.sx :)

Vouching for this, So does xV S P A C E Vx and AAE32, Burning Taco. but they are all dead now i guess on this forum.

Browithaquestionmark - February 15, 2015, 1:38 pm

vouch for this.

really nice.

would join again

although it is a webmaster one now.

^^^ Nice multi-accounting mate. The forum designs cool but damn if that's not a saturated idea for a forum then I don't know what is Your forum is a merge of around three different themes. There are missing images. In the homepage itself there are five different colors used which makes the forum look unprofessional. In other words, your forum has no potential.

Holy shit you're a moron lmao.

This is a custom theme, there are no missing images, and how the fuck does 5 different colors make it look bad?

Btw, Who the fuck are you to judge a site when your name is "Nigga Bitch" ?

LOL

I take criticism, but what he was doing was not criticizing. He was just being a hater

I wasn't hating. I was giving you feedback. Take what I said and use it to improve the forum or ignore what I said if you wish too. Anyhow good luck with the forum.

honeybutter - February 18, 2015, 2:34 pm looks pretty cool. I dig the name also the theme doesn't mean shit.

HF's theme is ugly, but nobody shit about it.

And its not our fault your shit is slow.

We have had 500 registrations in the past 24 hours, and thats much less than I planned to have, so yeah. It shouldn't be slow at all.

Browithaquestionmark - February 24, 2015, 11:16 am

Nice themes are so overrated, I have almost 2k members and 7k posts and we have a carbon theme lmao

meh gonna buy a custom theme soon but they better make it crappy
