Thread: Instagram Jacking - The Death Method

?Criminal - January 19, 2015, 10:44 pm

Releasing to the community an old useful method a friend passed on as knowledge before quitting, using this method you can obtain active instagrams as well as inactive instagrams, now before I get into this method lets look at the death policy at instagram, instagram states "It's our policy to remove the account of a deceased person from Instagram. To protect the privacy of people on Instagram, we're unable to provide anyone with login information to an account." they can't give you the current account but they can SWAP the handle onto a temp account more on that later.

1. Head over to <https://help.instagram.com/contact/452224988254813>
2. make sure you have a photoshopped death certificate and proof of authority that your associated with the dead person.
3. with these 2 pieces of info handy fill out the report as best as possible.
4. Choose "Remove" on the what you want them to do option.
5. in the additional information box explain you don't feel comfortable with the persons account existing since the persons dead and you would like the current account deleted and the username swapped onto another account that you have access to, give instagram the link of this temporary account.
6. if things work out you got your self a nice og handle!

Notes: This method only works for HANDLES not the actual account, theres other methods that allow the jacking of the full account and this isn't the main method I use for instagrams so I thought i'd release something decent to the community. Im not sure if it will work 100 percent but they will definitely remove the username and you may be able to convince them to give the handle in another email correspondence either way it's an effective way to gain usernames.

If anyone would like to give it a few test drives like on my old skype closing thread go right ahead.

Meh it's not as public as the trademark method + if you twist it up occasionally they give the handle, instead of just removing the username which is what normally happens. This may work on other services as well but it was mainly tested on instagram.

I feel you, still a great post. Others can learn / tweak from it.

bullshitting or did you actually manage to get something? theres no way you got a reply in under 1 day or 2.

aguila - January 21, 2015, 9:08 pm

Pretty neat method,

Just wondering, couldn't you take over asap yams profile on IG, since he is dead know?

Couldn't I just link a News Article about his death? Or does it have to be a Death Certificate?

If you can find an obituary or fake one that will also work.

Alff - February 2, 2015, 4:22 am

This work's yet? How many time he spends on give you an answer?

spelling - February 2, 2015, 2:21 pm

Is this still working?
i wanna try and get some OGs

Regulus - February 2, 2015, 2:23 pm

Has anyone been able to jack some nice OG's or Stats with this method yet? :)

SIM-2524147 - February 2, 2015, 3:15 pm

This doesn't work every time I try to submit a form it says the page is unavailable
Can you also give is a link to a death certificate we could Photoshop

???? - February 2, 2015, 3:17 pm

You sir.. are an evil genius! lol nice method vursace - February 3, 2015, 2:16 am where do i find the death certificate and stuff at lol? sorry im new Remember seeing this on a different forum, actually forgot all about it. Thanks for the share.

Trophie - February 3, 2015, 4:25 pm

They will not give you the handle whatsoever with this method, they clearly state a handle or an account will not be released if it was owned by someone who is now deceased, to prevent anything that could emotionally harm the family of the recently deceased, have tried this multiple times awhile before you posted this. No matter what option you choose remove the deceased account or use it as a memorial instagram will not release the handle or the accounts password, good share but it will not work as I've attempted it many times.

Klox - February 3, 2015, 4:34 pm

Nice method, thanks for sharing it will help alot of people. (including me)

Myracus - February 4, 2015, 4:49 am

Thats fucked up but hilarious

Raps - April 25, 2015, 11:02 am

Would someone be able to do this for me since I do not own PhotoShop?

xolger - December 22, 2015, 9:55 am

Amazing share I would be glad to do this

Lis?hén - December 23, 2015, 4:03 am

I didn't get the end cause of ly terrible english ._. I need to request a usernamge change into an account's username that I own ? But won't they notice that account already exists ?

It's an old method so unsure of how often it still works but that wouldn't matter your username is the placeholder username and they swap the handle onto the placeholder.The placeholder user then gets deleted.

SearchOptimizer - January 16, 2016, 9:04 pm currently testing the method!

I will re-write the method and exactly how this should be approached from an SEers point of view!
Well done.

TSTL_noodles - January 17, 2016, 10:41 am

this is cool i will try it out on my friends some day lmao

Alpha02 - January 23, 2016, 9:31 am
