Earnt $190 in one hour from one person.

Milking is a beautiful thing

Aeth? - January 20, 2015, 10:50 pm

Didn't go too well today.

Made $45 in AGC's and that's about it.

Don't really feel like trying any more today, all my traffic was so bad.

Might be because it's tuesday tho, I've noticed I earn a lot more in the weekends.

Yeah, I can agree with that.

Most pedos are usually exhausted after their work days and can't be bothered to pay for pictures/videos.

I'm not sure with the legalities of saying you're under 18 or not.

I'm pretty sure that would work, although you should not break the law in any way.

wink.

Anyways, most of the time I just say something innocent or sweet like "hey guys c:"

And then get tons of messages.

I see I made a typo tho, I meant I didn't send any previews ofcourse, not "They didn't send any previews" lol

Yeah that's what I was thinking haha.

Most of the times I'm 18-19, had a period where I was 22 aswell.

Rules of Hackforums:

PayPal Fraud

With PP fraud rampant in the hacker community we feel it's our duty to take a stand on this one. We will not allow discussion on selling of PayPal accounts, stealing accounts, or verifying accounts with false information. Basically if you're doing something against the TOS of PayPal, you're breaking a rule here.

This basically means you are not allowed to discuss using E-Whore/Fake PayPals, or stealing money from PayPals.

Long story short, we can't talk about that.
However so that you know it, when using paypal the sender (of money) will see your real name and email address if you have a Personal or Premier Account, if you have a Business Account, they will see your business name and email address.

Kik will never need a VPN.

Kik is probably one of the easiest places to get away with.

Stealing kiks is easy too, since their staff really doesn't do anything if they even have any that monitor stuff.

I use the kik method , and chat well and make guys fall for me but when it actually comes to getting a payment from them I fail.

I am new to ewhoring and I really can't get anyone to pay , I basically ask for a gift card.

It would really help me if you guys could tell me how I should ask for payment and give me examples of conversations.

Thanks!

I personally don't spend more than 10 minutes SE'ing before I bring up paying for pics/vids, that way you don't fall victim to all the time wasters out there. And it doesn't really matter what time of day because dudes are horny all day everyday and just as stupid today as they will be tomorrow, I will tell you more people get their PAYCHECKS on Friday though, so you do the math. Use the PayQuick method.

Ask them if they can pay with PayQuick, and then when they say yes, block them because PayQuick isn't real. lol.

But there is PayQuicker. Most people confuse it and when I use that method I've got plenty off people to pay me after they say "yes".

Use something fake.

Try using "PayNow" or make something up.

Made $180 within the last hour. Milked one guy for $100 (sent two $50 by showing the AGC didn't work) and apparently he's going to send another $50 so hopefully making me $230 in less than an hour. New method using [BRAND NAME REMOVED] is working tremendously well, stoked to see the outcome. Trying to get an iPhone 6 by the 26th this month.

Just made another $25, and have another $50 and $100 coming. This is ridiculous.

Got the $50 from the guy I already double-dipped and milked. Over $255 today now, going to try $500 before I call it quits today.

My method is so unsaturated.

SE'ing would really come into play here lad, beat around the bush or drop him a solid excuse, (money problems, friends over, ect). You could also try double dipping with a second e-whore.

Double Dipping on Amazon is really easy.

Have two emails, that are really close to each other, and have him send to one, and say oh I misspelled my email. Could you do it again?

For example:

sarahsexyswag@gmail.com

Oh, I meant 1 g, oops can you send again?

Make sure you don't make your E-Whore obvious on your story, people can report and get you banned really easily.
Also, you should just use Sellurs, that'll work fine.

If you don't play your cards right, meaning people report you or something then your Facebook will be banned.
Facebook has been known to ban E-Whores.

They usually just ask you to provide some sort of ID to prove you're real.

Did they permanently ban your IP or something?

I already chatted with the support, they told me that they don't ban IPs as far as she knows but they can ban MAC-addresses. So I asked her whether they banned mine, she told me no. So she told me that the only option would be actually that they banned my MAC, and that everything is very weird. I changed my MAC-address though and tried it out, it still doesn't work out.

She forwarded me to a technician who wrote me an email few days ago. He asked me to do a lot of things, I did them and it still doesn't work out. Now I have to do a "protocoll". I guess I will do that in few hours, I'm too lazy right now lol.

I can login with my iPhone in these accounts but not with my PC, so a IP-ban is not possible anyway but it's also not a MAC ban since I tried to use a lot of MACs. I hope I can resolve this since I have holidays and I planned to make a lot of money in this week.

Just download one and try it out. It's really easy.

I responded to a guy on kik on an old account, after a couple days he responded instantly. I was talking about how I was broke and needed money. He said he was broke also just for the heck of it I kept talking not thinking I was going to get paid.

Next the guy sends me $65 amazon for 60 pics and help getting a girl friend.

<https://gyazo.com/6983afb2ccb0a27f3df5c6bb74ab70f3>

Easiest money I ever made lol. So Im gonna kik him on my phone a couple times a day talking about getting a girl friend now.

Still worth the easy money.

Search sites on your own with Google and try to get traffic with social media profiles. It's not hard, you just need to put a bit effort in it.

Yeah, these people are called kids LOL. Amazon stated that as long as they cannot provide proofs that you got the money with fraud, they cannot cancel the card. However, I read multiple times that even a simple call was enough.. But when that's the case, Amazon will not close your account without any proofs of fraud. So don't worry, you'll be fine when you don't scam. Maybe you will lose from 100 cases about 2-3 cards because people still chargeback.

Uninstall manycam and download it from here: <http://manycam.softonic.de/>

It should give you an older version. If that doesn't work and you cannot find an older version with Google, I should still have the old setup file and I'll upload it then.

To be honest, anything you can get as long as it's reasonable.

If you are selling 100 pics for $5, that's ridiculous.

Make pictures around $1 each or 50 cents each, if you really want something to base it off of.

I remember when I first started eWhoring! I did not make any money. I couldn't stand only making $15 for a few hours of work. I decided to go a different, more devious, route. I'm sure the veteran eWhores know what I am talking about. I have made a HEFTY amount of cash over the past few years from a "certain type" of eWhoring.

I just found out that Snapshare (a module for the Xposed framework for android that functions like Phantom for the iOS) got taken down. How long will it be until Phantom gets downed or broken (like fake camera) too?

Speaking of Fake Camera, will there ever come a time when the old APK file for Kik stops working all together? Like if they updated Kik to version 8 or something and it just doesn't connect anymore? Do any of you guys know of other apps that has a camera picker and pic indicator and is mainly used for chatting?

Thanks,

Lil Herbo - February 21, 2015, 5:13 pm

I was able to make almost $1,500 in a week. eWhoring is great way to stack up some extra money. I wouldn't recommend it as a job because it is sometimes inconsistent.

If you're having trouble getting customers, go on chat ave and just spam 'xx/f/xx looking for xxx add my kik xxxx ' and you'll get people kiking you (you don't get spammed but you get like 10 after a couple minutes)

I started ewhoring last sunday I think? My method isn't really legitimate, but it works every once in a while. I've made £185 in Amazon vouchers and sold them. I mean I blew about £100 with my friend but still, it's a nice rush.

I've never had anyone question my use of a timer, but here's the best way around that:

1) Go to the Google Play Store and download "Self Camera Timer"

Link - Spoiler \(Click to View\)

<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=ter.and.cameratimer&hl=en>

2) You are not going to use the app, you are only going to keep it on your apps screen

3) If you're using bluestacks, go to the app store and download any screenshot app so you can take screenshots

4) When they are suspicious of your timer, simply send a screenshot of your apps including the Self Camera Timer app to prove you have it on your "phone"

P.S. make sure "Fake Camera" is not in the screenshot, but I shouldn't need to tell you that.
