Some funny stuff (that's also really long) is Chuck.

I heard that The Americans is also good, I have that next on my watchlist.

Arrow is being filmed in my area, I should probably begin watching it.

Wachting White Collar Right now, pretty good.

Prison break was unbelievably intense and good but around season 3 It got stretched out and got pretty boring. Still a very good series regardless.

Freaks and Geeks is awesome. Not entirely sure if it's still on Netflix, though.
Californication is a personal fave.

The Netflix originals: House of Cards, Marco Polo, OITNB

And the classics: Weeds, Sons of Anarchy, Sherlock, Arrested Development, It's always sunny in Philadelphia, The Office (UK and US), and Firefly.

Plenty more shows that I could include, but the above are amazing shows.

Supernatural is an awesome lengthy season, easy time killer
