Shit's still pretty cool. Some things got better, other things got worse.

Epic group doesn't make non-ub3r members any less shitty. Ub3r members are generally just as shitty, though.

Old members are the real OG's.

Money still means everything.

I would do a shout out for all mah friends but I ain't got none. Shout out to Cloudflare for being this forum's crutches like 22/7

Thanks mom and dad, without your beatings I would never have become this socially awkward - yet awesome - human being.

Peace.

P.S. post or PM if you want to be my friend

Nightfall's like the only home I got left after my brother burned down our house after Mom found out he was having treesomes with my sister and the dog.
