Thread: Free Graphic Requests

So i'm not sure of the chances that this will happen, but is there any way we can stop these kids with like 1 post from requesting free graphics?

Like maybe set a minimum post limit of 25ish to access that section? These kids cant even have a sig and an avatar it makes no sense to me why they request this stuff. They haven't contributed anything to the community.

Here's an example:

It's just an idea I had.

Doesn't really matter, nobody is going to create graphics for them anyways because people only go to that section to earn rep.
