Thread: New OMC Faucet - Need devs/partner!

Ishmel - January 26, 2015, 4:10 pm

Hey just giving people a heads up that I just got omcfaucet.org, and we need devs! I'm also looking for a partner.

I'm doing this because all the 'faucets' at omnicoin.org do not work. I'd like to change that for the people of HF.

Anyway, the application link is in my signature if anyone's interested!

Thanks!

Even though this is all about Omnicoin, this probably would be better in the Partnerships, Hiring, and Personnel subforum.

He has a separate thread there. It is linked in his signature. I think he is just trying to get some more attention and let people interested in OMC know about his plans.

Ahhh, this is what happens when I don't read through it all.

Haha, that's okay. I'm just trying to get people who often visit the crypto/omc section in on this because I don't know how much people browse the Partnership forum :)

omnicha.in is much better than omnicoin.org.

Omnichain is a block explorer, whereas omnicoin.org is our official site. It u is under Omni's ownership though, and he has not updated it or added to it for a long time.

Yep.

Anyway, illuminati.omcfaucet.org is up, and omcfaucet.org is getting on it's way! We expect release in about a month as my l33t g33k friends are pushing our other projects away for now and helping me with this! Maybe sooner!

Closing this thread for now, couple g33k friends are helping me enough!
