Thread: Be careful when dealing with this guy.

Auxy - June 7, 2010, 5:30 am

This guy just offered to buy me L33T, but asked me for my HF login info so he could do it. I might be wrong, but that seems pretty shifty. His HF username is Dontfucktheboss (<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=48316>)

Yeah, you don't need the login information.

<https://hackforums.net/upgrade.php>

Scroll towards bottom, you can use it for another member.

I wonder why he wants your account info, i mean, that's weird. You aren't L33t or Ub3r or anything.

Mr Kewl - June 7, 2010, 5:44 am

LoL He Even told me 2 give my Login Info.

Charny - June 7, 2010, 5:47 am

Same here, and I got some proof, I'm currently making a scam report.

Kondry - June 7, 2010, 5:48 am

It's because he has 1 rep and you have 13.

There's a section for this, it's called the scammer section.

Mr Kewl - June 7, 2010, 6:13 am

I Reported The Thread Wrong Section

Still Its not Moved. :/

Chris.. - June 7, 2010, 6:15 am

he does not need your info he just wants your rep ost likey DO NOT TRUST HIM

Suicidal Thoughts - June 7, 2010, 6:20 am

Yea man exactly he doesnt need your information to proceed with buying you l33t.
In the Upgrade section there is a Member ID Link tab if you are buying someone L33t.
You should PM a Admin.

Far - June 7, 2010, 6:20 am

As 7 people have now told you, don't trust him. You never need to give away your account password for anything on HackForums. Send this to a Staff via PM, and they will handle it.

Factor8™ - June 7, 2010, 6:21 am

This is such a lame account hijack attempt. This guy needs to be dealt with asap.

Shotta - June 7, 2010, 6:22 am

No, you had to log in to the persons account a while back to buy l33t. Maybe he forgot.

Oh really? Read the bottom of the second screenshot, and the top of the third. He clearly knows he's trying to scam.

I am not talking about scamming. I am just saying that you had to log in to the persons account to buy l33t for them.

I know, but you said that he might've thought that it was still like that. If you read that area, you'll see that he doesn't think that, and he's trying to scam.

Eagle 95 - June 7, 2010, 6:31 am

No you don't lol.If you want to buy upgrade for someone just add link to his profile HERE.Beware of people like this one.

N3w_2_H@Ck1n™ - June 7, 2010, 6:38 am

Yeah, never give your pass out. People don't need your password to buy you anything on HF.

Could you provide a link to his account? I think he changed his name.
