I could leave a review, give me like a 30 minute trial if you want that.

I am in no way affiliated with the seller.

So I recieved a trial for this program and I tried it and works awesome, even without proxies it made upto 100 accounts!

Highly recommend this, super fast.

Is that the only email used in the program? Should add at least 5-10 different emails but none the less it looks like a great program goodluck!

Hotmail works too. But mail.ru is better since it won't ask for verification later.

xNeaples - February 6, 2015, 7:07 am

Can I get the trial version? Thank you.

Che Guevara - February 6, 2015, 7:14 am

Sorry guys trial version is not available anymore. Everyone is asking for a version and only 1 guy gave a feedback. Now we have 1 day trials for $5.

Will it save which proxy was used to make the account? If not that might be a good simple feature to have. This way we can log back into accounts on same proxy later

It does not as of yet. It is not needed since most people use public proxies. They won't stay working after a while so it's pointless at the moment.

I PMed you and added ya on Skype - very interested in this.

If you could allow to test out the 1 day trial, I'd greatly appreciate it. I've been looking for solid software like this to purchase for quite some time.
