Will you be recruiting?

Yes, we will recruit a little bit after the group is fully established.

Will you be accepting buy-ins?

No, at least not in the foreseeable future.

(Feb 2, 2015 09:34 PM)?rust Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Guys, I want to give everyone my word that Craft will be something special.

I'm not some rich user buying a group to make an investment, I'm just a normal person that really wants to make a difference, even if it's just on a hacking forum. I want to bring back the time when groups were good, when owners weren't just trying to make a quick buck, when Omni thought it necessary to give awards for good groups. Craft is going to be a group where users who are passionate about something can talk about the thing they're passionate about with other users and leaders that are passionate about the same thing. Ongoing, Basquiat, and myself are going to do everything in our power to make Craft a success.

You have my word.

Not some stupid investment.

We want Craft to be a group where users want to join.
Not just so we can take their money and give them a userbar...

Who is leading the musical arts sector, out of curiosity.

We have no sector leaders picked.

I think Trust has someone in mind for the Gfx sector.

This is true.

However, I will most likely be personally leading the musical arts sector.

prada ? - February 4, 2015, 8:40 pm

I'd pick your sector leaders carefully, they could either make or break the authenticity of the group.

holy shit deja vu thats weird

Sakuto - February 5, 2015, 12:50 am

So, actually 3 sectors planned ? Coding, gfx, music ?

I'd recommend Baghead/Cade as sector leader of gfx.

He's been my sector leader in numerous groups and he's very good at it.

Yeah, we're good friends and he was my first choice, but he just doesn't have the time.

Rivalry says he'd be down.

I want to wish you all the best of luck with Craft. I'm sure you'll make it into a great group.

He's been my sector leader in numerous groups and he's very good at it.He approaches every group begging for a graphics sector and asks to be leader of it, no point. He's just going to abandon it like he did with TB's.

Hopefully something decent comes out of it.

So, what about the leadership of Basquiat ? It will break a little your project.

Hmm?

I think you're all misunderstanding the situation with him.

All Omni was saying was that if we purchase the group, that makes me the owner and he will not recognize Basquiat as a partial owner, just a leader. So if I were to remove them as leaders, omni would do so without question and if I wanted to sell the group, I could and it wouldn't be scamming.

However, I would never do that to Basquiat and Ongoing.

Not in a million years. The group ends when we're all burned out and Basquiat/Ongoing will cosidered equal to me in my eyes.

Nothing has changed and Craft is still in the works!
