We rise from the ashes of our past, strengthened by the flames, to light the way for all to see.

We are opening Phoenix via two recruitment methods.

1. $35 fee (Contact me)
2. 100 quality posts on SupportBoards.net (Contact Nevieth)

If you wish to buy-in, send me a PM with your PayPal email or alternate payment method. We will accept PayPal or BTC currently. If you have 100 quality posts on SupportBoards.net then contact Nevieth with your username on that site.

Terms:

1. No refunds or payment disputes. If you purchase a spot in Phoenix you will not have to abide by activity rules, the only way you can be removed is by violating HF rules or harassing members.
2. Those applying through SupportBoards.net are solely approved by Nevieth.

Jason™ - February 2, 2015, 7:17 am

So the only way we can get in is paying or 100 posts on your forums, no general recruitment?

Dog™ - February 2, 2015, 7:18 am

This is a really great group. A great bunch of friendly people who're always spamming up the SF with their helpful posts. The group is quite real-life orientated and we all tend to help each other out with RL stuff.

Definitely worth the time/money spent - Considering the buyin is fairly cheap and the other method is very very easy.

Everyone should join this group. I've only been a member for a little, and they have the most active subforum I've ever seen.

"2. 100 posts on SupportBoards.net (Contact Evangelist)"

You should make it so posts under the introduction tag and such don't count.
IMO it should be posts in the personal section; you're just going to get a bunch of UB whores this way.

That's why Tibit said Evangelist will handle everything on the forum in case it's like that.

Nevieth - February 2, 2015, 12:09 pm

When you reach 100 posts on SB let Evangelist know and we'll both evaluate your posts. Spam posts in introductions will most likely not count unless they're truly high quality and above a certain secret minimum post count.

You have to reach 100 posts, but those posts can't all be "Welcome to SB".

Phoenix is a wonderful group to be in. Just take note. Just because you have 100 posts on SupportBoards, don't expect to get an invite. Evangelist will be judging you by the posts you made. You can either make 100 posts within 30 minutes and represent yourself poorly, or actually be dedicated to the forum and not use it just for the purpose of getting an invite to the group.

Good luck, hope to see some new faces.

How does that not represent the OP? In the OP we never claim you'll get a permanent spot for your 100 posts, plus all posts need to be high quality and approved by Evangelist first.

If you're accepted into Phoenix that's awesome, but if you go around and do nothing but troll and insult others then it's common sense that you'll probably get removed.

Any errors in the OP will be corrected.

I'm speaking about the buyins. They don't have to abide by the activity rules, essentially paying for a user bar.

Fair enough, when I wrote what I did I was thinking about the post-ins, not the buy-ins.

I would imagine that the buy-ins would also be held to some sort of requirement, but of course since they're buy-ins it won't be very strict. (If you're a buy-in and decide to do nothing but troll/insult people, you'll most likely not last long.) :P

Hopefully I cleared up some confusion.

I have a question about 100 quality posts on SupportBoards.net (Contact Nevieth) is there a dead end for this requirement? Because I might be interested in joining this group, but I don't got the money to buy my way in. ?

Incognito™ - February 4, 2015, 9:27 pm

I see this recruitment as going two ways, either trying to advertise a website or trying to make some profit before dumping and selling the group.

Either way Phoenix is HQ as was 143 before it so don't hesitate to buy in and or work your arse off for a spot!

Plus support boards is chill af so getting 100 posts should be easy.

We don't have a specific deadline for it, however it will last longer than the buy-in option, also there have already been several users to do the 100 posts to get in without spamming LQP and actually participating, the platform is different from MyBB and easier to have conversations on.

Alright, thank you for the information. I'll let you guys know if I decided to make 100 HQ posts. ?

Either way Phoenix is HQ as was 143 before it so don't hesitate to buy in and or work your arse off for a spot!

Plus support boards is chill af so getting 100 posts should be easy.

-Incognito ?

No plans of dumping it and selling it off soon, so no worries there.

It is a great forum and even better people. None of the petty arguments and stuff we deal with on here.

I will be reaching 200 soon :)

We will be increasing the requirements later this week, most likely on Monday, so if you want in the easier ways feel free to now, the posting can easily be done in a day and the price is pretty low.

Do you think my posting / threads meet the requirements to join Phoenix?

I have surpassed 100 and still active so I hope to get in before you raise the requirements :)

The way I'm thinking about it, if you've already made 100 high quality posts before the requirement raise, you'll still be considered.
