Thread: Buying Skins - 68% via PP + BTC - Trusted - NEW BUYING PRICE

630 - February 2, 2015, 10:00 am

UPDATE: I am really interested in Katowice 2014 skins and stickers. I will buy them for above my 68% offer provided they are something that I feel is decent.

I am looking for CSGO skins. My rate is 68%, it is a firm rate. I will not offer you above that (unless you have an amazing fade). I will begin compiling a vouch list, but as of right now I see no need for one. Please let me know if you have skins for sale.

Why deal with me? I have been an active member of Hack Forums for over 4 years.

I have done over $10,000 worth of PayPal + Bitcoin transactions on CSGO skins alone.

I have a US, business verified PayPal.

I am not here to make a quick buck off of you. I rarely sell items on HF and will not quick flip it on you. I am a collector who loves playing the game and the skins I buy here are used to acquire new skins for my play inventory.

I have 5,000 hours on CSGO and an inventory worth over $10,000.

I offer trusted money with no risk of a chargeback. One thing that I've learned is that I would rather take a dollar from someone I trust than $1.10 from someone who might screw me over.

My steam: <http://steamcommunity.com/id/Garrett/>

My inventory: <http://steam.tools/itemvalue/#/Garrett-730>

ToS: Don't waste my time, you're either selling or not.

You go first 100% of the time or a middleman (that I trust) can be used at your expense. My preferred middleman is TheHackersLove.

Refunds will not be issued once the transaction is completed.

I have the right to refuse certain items. This is a rare exception, but mainly due to high tier items, certain knives not selling easily, and bad fades affecting market value.
