Thread: Looking back on your negative reps!

EricR - February 3, 2015, 10:51 am

I found something beautiful.

It brings a lot of joy to me to look back and read my negative reps!

I truly don't know why! i don't want people to be angry.

I will never give anyone negative reps again. I've determined that doing this will not make the world a better place.

I have quite some funny ones, actually (quite ironic).

A lovely one from our friend, Google Expert.

How ironic, that a week after he gave me that, sadly Google Expert went on a scamming spree and was repfucked. Damn.

Another lovely one from our favorite member, DotPSD

How ironic, that a week after he gave me that, sadly DotPSD went on a scamming spree and was repfucked. Damn. - Déjà vu

Another lovely member, Sol Yurick, better known as Rolex owner, Astonish.

Sadly, around a week or two after, our proud Rolex owner, Astonish was closed.

Another, yep, again, lovely member of our community, YoloSwagMaster

How ironic, that a week after he gave me that, sadly YoloSwagMaster went on a scamming spree and was repfucked. Damn. - Déjà vu, again.

What's the moral of this? Well, I guess it's a pretty bad idea to neg me, as clearly .. it didn't end too well for the others.

EricR - February 3, 2015, 12:58 pm

I think people will learn how to be better to others faster if you don't negative rep them!
When you negtaive rep them, you are then making them apart of your brand!

Its sort of like going to someones house you don't like and sticking a note on the door that you were there, and that you didnt like them! others see that note.

If everyone removed the negative reps from people they negative repped in the past, that person would get on and see their reputation went up! Which means they feel reward! which means that are nicer about everything they say or do the whole day!
which carries over in small amounts the next day, and the day after that.
