Thread: Scammed by SoulZeh - UID=516470 - \$100 - In Progress of being Resolved

chrisman0091 - February 4, 2015, 7:33 pm

EDIT: SoulZeh has recently reached out to me in an attempt to resolve this as he was in a hardship at the time, and has started to pay me back in increments.

Paid back so far: $10.99/$100

Profile URL: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=516470>

Profile UID: 516470

Amount: $100

Other, recent disputes put up against him:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4670833>

Went to make a transaction with SoulZeh, payed the money, he claimed sent but it never arrived. Waited, gave him a chance, and he won't pay me the money back either. Can't really charge back either as I sent as family/friends and it's a digital good(buyer not covered?).

Proof:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Tracking said he read that one and didn't respond, PMd him again:

Now I did give him a chance to fix it, and as much as I'd love to believe his stories about it being somebody else holding the coins, it seems unlikely as he first blamed it on the BTC network being slow, then said he'd get it sent first thing the next day, and now is saying that he's not the one holding it and still won't refund me my Paypal.

With that note, I am giving him more time to fix this and believe that he may very well have intentions to do so.

Yeah man, it looks like he's on a scamming spree right now. I dont think your getting youre money back, buddy.

cyberducky - February 4, 2015, 7:59 pm

I know SoulZeh well, I can't believe he would do something like this but unfortunately the scam report looks legit. Are there other scam reports recently opened about being scammed the same way? If he is on a scamming spree like the user above said, this is truly sad and disappointing.

EDIT: According to SoulZeh, he is having problems with his BTC Wallet "guy" and said if anything happens he will pay out of his own pocket. Hopefully he pays you soon.

Yeah, but I'm clinging to my hope that I do haha, that was my investment money.

Sucks if he is doing it, though he claims that he's not the one that holds both the PP and BTC funds and that he's doing what he can, doesn't sound very realistic imo. But yeah, check OP, linked some other reports and there's another member or two in his rep claiming he scammed them that haven't posted a report.

Aw what SoulZeh is going rogue? I hope it's not true...

Yeah, I hope so too, both for what Aceman said and so I can get my money back as I'm supposed to be investing that for somebody.

Young Gerald - February 5, 2015, 3:42 pm

Dayum SoulZeh went crazy or wut?? Why are more and more ub3r's and high rep members scamming now ;(

Tibit - February 5, 2015, 3:45 pm

Well hopefully his story is true, I would hope he didn't scam you. Even if you sent via friends/family or digital goods you can still charge back, if multiple people chargeback it's likely you all will win too, explain the situation or come up with a story about how you meant to send as goods/services but must have clicked the wrong button or didn't mean to send it to this person and mistyped the email address, you would need to chargeback sooner rather than later though.

Trophie - February 5, 2015, 7:14 pm report looks legit, good luck resolving this.

Pentinum - February 5, 2015, 7:20 pm

Third report on SoulZeh and he claims on each one that he'll have it fixed within 24 hours. Sorry for your loss but you probably should have searched the user, even if he has 1000 rep.

SoulZeh - February 5, 2015, 9:59 pm

I've never once claimed it would be fixed in 24hours, that's just the amount people have waited... Yea, it may seem it's fishy as fuck, I'd say myself it is, but I'm still waiting on my business partner getting into contact with me, then we can sort this shit out.

If he does not get back to me, then the money will be coming out of my own pocket, simple... Do you honestly think I would risk my reputation and my profile for little amounts? Nah do not think so, I've even admitted way way back if I was to ever and I mean EVER scam I would go big...

He will get his money back, just a matter of time and the more and more he pms me about it constantly it's gonna take longer... Yea, sucks I'm making him wait but I'm doing the best I can...

I mean, Yes I personally do but the fault is the partner taking the complete piss and taking his time, but if it goes on way too long I will sort it out myself

Hyxzer - February 5, 2015, 10:08 pm

Look what he's got written under his username.

I think he got hacked.

Well I do not wanna give an estimated time frame you know, but I hope to hell it doesn't take more than a week, not even close to that... Hopefully mid next week...

No, I've not been hacked, I've used this usertitle for months.

Pablo - February 5, 2015, 10:13 pm

Sorry for your very long waiting but good news is your getting money backsoon! :)

I said give me a few hours, I never once said anything about 24 hours... I mean believe what you want to believe, I'm trying to sort it out, I'm sorry it's taking longer than expected.

I also do have a deadline now, 9th February. I am in a call with my partner as I type this... It's something to do with the wallet on his end but don't worry, we've got all this sorted and I can assure 9th Feb will be the deadline... If not, Stalker you can take it into your own hands.

chrisman0091 - February 19, 2015, 10:10 pm

Just figured I'd post an update, it's been nearing 3 weeks since the transaction and even though he's been on every day since and has also stopped replying to messages:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

I don't expect to get my money back at this point, and now fully believe that he did scam me, but figured I'd update it one last time. Putting it into the DB now so he'll see it once again and if he decides to respond to the thread so be it, but I've yet to get a response in a while.

Nope, never resolved or even attempted to be resolved on their part.

gore - September 30, 2016, 4:21 pm

Kev what r u doing? This is old as hell and not resolved?

SoulZeh - January 29, 2017, 7:53 am

I'm going to comment on this, If people can read the OP, I'm currently paying Chris AND Cameron back, I know it took sometime, however I've explained fully to them what happened and now I've reached out to them, Thank you.
