Happy Nerd - February 5, 2015, 8:12 am

Hello graphic designers, as the Title says I need a Website Banner, I guess some of you can do this in a beautiful way :)

Size: 700x300;

Text: Imanity (choose the font you think looks good) (text-color: blue/dark);

Image-vector(would be perfect If you could do that I might can spend like 1 € as I'm really broke I cant do a thread for a Paid one like 15€/ $) :

Should be a chesspiece like the one with the cross : Click Here!

I'm already interested in seeing your Work ! :)?

Alright, and what do you exactly want, the text and the chesspiece?

Happy Nerd - February 6, 2015, 10:08 am

Yeh maybe the chesspiece on the left side of the text and then the word "Imanity". Background can be something blue /dark .

checker132 - February 6, 2015, 10:17 am

Ok. I managed to get the chesspiece out of the picture you provided, so I'll do it right now.

Happy Nerd - February 6, 2015, 10:33 am

I'm already interested in seeing it thank you !

checker132 - February 6, 2015, 11:02 am

So, here you go! I added the chinese version in the background, and a nice reflection of text and chesspiece. If you want me to change sth. don't hesitate to ask!

Can you make the text not in that crushed-style,although I really like this picture. And can the blue sign behind the chesspiece disappear :) ?

Yes, of course, should be ready soon. What kind of font do you want?

What do you think about this:

1. <http://www.dafont.com/mademoiselle-camille.font?text=Imanity&back=top>
2. <http://www.dafont.com/orange-juice.font?text=Imanity&back=top>
3. <http://www.dafont.com/alice-and-the-wicked-monster.font?text=Imanity&back=top>

I actually like the Third one , about the second one I dont know if it looks good in a Webbanner ..

checker132 - February 6, 2015, 2:42 pm

Number 3 is perfectly fine.
