Thank you. I appreciate that man. Hopefully we make some sales cause its a method that is actually very unique and will easily make anyone money who is willing to put some initial effort it. It's very simple to but it's just to get people to believe that as everyone else seems to lie.

I'll get my partner to send me his. I just began this method yesterday so it's not worth me showing mine. Although I do already have $25 in about 12 hours which is quite good cause I'm not even completely set up.

Payment Proof to come.

Review

Grammar 10/10

I didn't notice any grammar mistakes.

Content: 8/10

Brilliant, the method is very simple and easy to set up. There is a little bit of work but after that just 2 mins per day maintenance is enough to keep the profits rolling in.

Originality: 9/10

I'm not going to give full marks because it does touch a little on a known method BUT this is a whole new way of looking at it. I doubt anybody has been using this method or knows about it. I for one haven't thought about this before and I will certainly be setting it up when I have some time.

Layout: 10/10

Very nice font, colours, everything is easy to follow.

Overall: 9/10

You will 100% be able to earn from this. Its a very nice way to make some profit, no investment is needed. You could start earning with this in your first hour, it all depends on how quickly you set this up. The more you maintain it, the more you will earn I am sure.

Personal message

I advise people to buy this method.

Kenii - February 6, 2015, 3:52 pm

Does this method include websites like ebay, alibaba etc.? It's clearly stated that the method is "greyhat", but how immoral is it? Is this just violating some random company's/website's agreements, or actually tricking people in some way to pay you money?

This has absolutely nothing to do with eBay or anything like that. It's basically just violating a websites agreements. That being said, the chances of your account getting banned are slim and if it did, you'd just make another account.

I don't know why I didn't see it earlier, but your thread says this method is greyhat. Which makes it semi-illegal.

Is this anything like the paypal exploit from waaay back when people were making fake unlock websites and getting donations?

If not, then can you tell me what this method involves in a little more detail than your thread?

If it sounds convincing enough, then I may just be forced to pick up a copy.

It max takes like 2 days to setup and you have not to do anything after its setup except sitting back and watching your money rolling!

Q: Are your 2 hours worth 1000$(Which you can easily make within a month)?

I would love to see these "customers" who make money with it :)

I have answered every single one of your questions lol. Right from the start you have expected to just get the money handed to you with no work. You will not find any method that requires no work.

Don't miss out on this awesome method guys ! One of a kind

Hi I'm Arnold - February 19, 2015, 4:29 pm

Well this is based on own experience - Others might find this method easier than me.

I don't really find it that easy to setup, nor' do I experience what is told in the eBook when I reach a certain point.

After a week of daily use, I have seen progress, but no money yet.

I'm stuck at a point I guess.

-Will obviously edit this whenever I start earning or get the refund.

After 7 days of purchase, I have yet to receive any cash. I've done the methods explained. I have everything set-up, still have yet to see any results. Very displeased with this service. I guess i'm not good at E-whoring.

Nope, actually I havent earned a single penny yet.

I find this method way harder than it is said to be. Someone might be a little luckier though.

If you are having troubles, defiantly contact me. I've had a couple people just doing one thing wrong and I've been able to push them in the right direction.

I am thinking of buying this , but I hoped it's not the same thing such as redirecting Anonymous web traffic to a URL Shortened, I tried it , I earned about 1$ and then my account got suspended again , I tried again and same thing happened and got suspended again.

Is it different then ?

Not necessarily. Paypal is easiest but I suppose other payment methods would work as well.

Basically whatever shipping takes plus around a day of processing.
