Thread: well this was a week well wasted and well spent

Mallet Man - February 7, 2015, 9:12 am

I started E-Whoring about a week ago and havent gotten any cash, i dont know why or what the reason is but i cant get anybody to buy ever, iv learned a lot and now i think i need to learn a new method, kik/bluestacks aint working for me for some weird reason. Any advise would be appreciated and i would really like any sort of feedback.

I can tell you, you need a lot of traffic for being able to profit.

Change your "week well wasted" to "week well learnt". I had stopped ewhoring for a month, started yesterday and i got 320$ lying on my paypal account.

If I were you I would watch Dabbi's Streams. I made 200 yesterday using his strats.

It's honestly hit and miss a lot of these pedos know what you are planning they have seen it all before and tbh I don't blame them course they wanted free nudes who wants to pay for pics they are all over the net whereas there is new people that visit the sites we get traffic from and then they get ewhored it's honestly hit and miss that's all I can say.

You need to work on getting better traffic.

What methods are you using to gain traffic right now?

Feeze - February 7, 2015, 11:24 am

Regardless of your traffic source you should've made something with common sense.

Upon stumbling upon this section a week ago, I also found boxxy's tutorial thread, read it, followed it regarding kik and the fake live camera, and literally googled "kik meetup".

After that I went to all the ones without a lengthy registration. All my info was as follows:

Code Kik- kristine.cutie92

Age- 22

Comments - Looking for a huge favor from a real man(age 22+ please). Can definitely return the favor kik; kristine.cutiexx92 (;Make a kik kind of like mine.

So far pretty damn simple yeah?

Sumbit that to a couple of those sites and wait for the perv's to start coming. I also suggest using sellurs or pay ivy.

As for talking to them, I have a couple things I do:

- If they say anything about sexual anything before even your first response, block them, 90% of the time they will just insist on sending you a dick pic even after you say you're selling your pics.

- If they have a dick pic in thier profile pic, block them. Waste of time and nasty.

- Go for the guys that just say "hey" or "what's the favor?", these are generally people more interested.

- If they look under 22, I block just because of so many 16 year old posers.

- Have a template, for example have a conversation until they say "what's up" or "what're you up to" and have something ready to paste like:

";) just trying to sell some really naughty pics I took of myself. I really need bill money. They're HOT though, think you might be interested?"

The self is self explanatory for gods sake. I might write a full spoonfed method to kik ewhoring to stop these threads.

I make $100 a day easy from the method I just said above... And I get them to buy 15-20 pics from me for like $25-$40 easy.

20 nudes + 3 selfies + 1 non nude preview + common sense = $100 in 4-5 hours max.

You need alot more traffic Post and ask some people what the best traffic sites are, I have no idea..
