Thread: The best hacks are free. I laugh at fools who buy hacks.

Haxor242 - February 9, 2015, 12:12 am

I have used many hacks on BF4 that are still undetectable. The only way I ever got banned was from the server admins. Fairfight is complete shit! The second beta for hardline was only out for 3 days and I already had a fully functioning and 100% undetectable esp. So many people are lied into buying hacks and I just laugh. U can get all these hacks for free people! ?

Can you share with us as to how we can get "these hacks" for free or are you just bragging about it?

Ok. There are 2 main websites I get all my hacks from. The first one is unknowncheats.me and the second one is mpgh.net

There u go. Both are really good websites but for battlefield hacks , I stick with unknown cheats.

And why is that? If I may ask. Im just trying to help out a fellow.

It is fun to cheat in CS, at least from time to time, but I never saw a point in hackingg in BF. Kinda lost the fun. I don't know. Haven't played much of BF anymore anyways, but I never deemed it to be a hard game. Usually, when I play it now, I don't even try Anymore. Lost the fun from topfragging. Now I just blow up shit and troll the enemy team with C4, sabotage and so on.

You're comparing public hacks to vip hacks. Also bragging about it. Do you know who makes a public hack? ?

I started hacking because I got so bored of all the maps. After playing a game for hundreds of hours, all the fun is lost. Dont get me wrong. Whenever i play without hacks, i can easily maintain a 3 kd+ no problem. The best part about hacking is seeing all the tryhards rage like hell. That gives me the most satisfaction.

Truth be told, most, if not all, the paid cheats for BF4 have been undetected since release of the cheat (each corresponding to their respective creator/owner). Which was give or take less then 24-48 hours difference from BF4 game release.

But it is true unknowncheats.me have some great bf4 cheat releases.

Hy?pnotist - February 10, 2015, 12:38 pm

Free cheats aren't great. Only good one on mpgh.net is the Multihack, even then it doesn't have the features that paid hacks do such as perfect jet flight, auto spot for point grinds, 1 hit kill, vehicle weapon hacks, eg having a tank that shoots three times at once and class hack eg, having c4 as assault or engineer etc. Admin chat hack can also be found in some paid hacks as well as invisibility, auto heal, auto revive and the list goes on and on. Only person being laughed at is you op

Public hacks for games are nothing compared to VIP hacks. Yes, you can get a hack free for a specific game, for free, but if you buy VIP hack for said game, it'll be 100% better and with a way less chance of being detected. As for the public hack for said game, it has a higher chance of being detected because of how many people would be using it.

Why the fuck do you guys want to cheat in this game?
it literally ruins the fun

Well it's not hard to play over 100 hrs when a game has been out for at least a year.
