Thread: Can I auction away OMC in the members auction section?

Matrix Programmer - February 9, 2015, 3:31 am as we all know (if you didn't now you do) Omni's auctioning a group that can be only bought with OMC away. I have some OMC stashed away in my room and I was wondering if it was ok to auction that away inside the members auction section in an auction style approach? ty

I don't see why cannot. You are UB3R.

And one more question, is it considered cross posting if I do post in the members auction assuming that other people say it's ok too if I have a thread selling OMC in the currency exchange section? Like should I junk that thread before posting the one in members auction?
