OT: Back in the day when I played World of Warcraft, about 2008, I needed a new alias so I was making a new character when Wrath of The Litch king came out which bought a new class called the Death Knight, at the time dragons were a thing I was somewhat interested in so we took the Drag from dragon and took Knight from Death Knight but we were left with Dragknight which didn't look that nice so a friend said to me "how about Dragnite?" and I said sure, to this day I am confused with the Pokemon Dragonite but I don't mind too much.
