Thread: Can I sell an iTunes Giftcard Code?

Raddify - February 14, 2015, 12:23 pm

Was just wondering if this is allowed.

Thanks!

Apple products aren't allowed to be sold.

You are not allowed to sell Gift Cards on HF.

Check the disallowed blackhat activity help page.

Oh.

Can I advertise selling it in my userbar?

The answer is no. Learned the hard way. This site restricts so many legitimate transactions its actually a little stupid.

Most likely not, no. I wouldn't take the chance as you are basically still trying to sell it using this site. Thus causing it to break the rule, of what Chief above posted.

I assume that you cannot do it. I really doubt it.

Sell it on Reddit, it's very easy and safe to sell them there.

No dickhead. You can't sell it anywhere.

Sorry about calling you a dickhead.

Not only this but also:

from Disallowed BlackHat Activity Help Document

OP, in the future, a thorough reading of the help documents can answer most questions like this.
