I don't really know whether to classify it as that or not because I have seen legitimately 13+ threads regarding this website.

WTF...

If it's a ponzi scheme there's no way you would make money... I've checked other forums, they say they can't withdraw. No ads on the site, how exactly do they "Double your money"? Money doesn't grow on trees. Nothing in the FAQ about this either.

I have just talked with a few people and realize this is in fact an illegitimate website. Thread will now be closed.
