Thread: Free 50 - 100 Twitch Followers \(UB3RS + L33ts\)

Linkin Park - February 18, 2015, 8:31 pm

Hey guys, what's up, so I recently purchased an amazing Twitch Viewer Bot, that gives followers, etc, and it's holding up great, I've been doing great with it, and I've managed to get a genuine follower base of about 3k, as a little thanks to it, I'm offering to give out 50 - 100 followers to Ub3r/L33t members of the site as I'm feeling rather generous and giving, and I know how hard starting up on Twitch can be without that little boost. So if you just post your Twitch.tv/ I'll add them at some stage over the next few days. Also be sure to drop by and show your appreciation to the actual bot developer, as I wouldn't be able to give you guys this little giveaway without him:

Thanks again guys :)

would appreciate this, thanks! prefer it if you could keep my follower count under 1000 though, it's around 923 right now.

Just a quick question regarding the bot, the followers are all instant? Do they do up in someones stream.

U know those streams that some people have that make a little sound. I feel like you could have some fun with that and just spam then a couple of followers lol

No problem, will add about 60 now for you, should leave you just below the 1k mark.

YEAH! That's exactly one of the things I recommend people do, you can click to add a certain amount of followers, and its instant. I can literally add 10k followers in about 15 mins. And yeah, if you have twitchAlerts set up, you can make them pop up with follower noises etc, its pretty amazing.
