Thread: Need a YouTube Intro Made

Imminent - February 19, 2015, 7:20 pm

Hey, I've recently started up a gaming YouTube channel, and I am in need of an intro.

I'm not looking for anything too fancy with a bunch of dubstep and spinning text etc, I am looking for something more along the lines of the intro in this video. It must be in Full 1080p HD also. It shouldn't be any more than 10 seconds long.

Please shoot me a PM if you can do this, I will pay you what I think you deserve for the quality of your work. If I had just received something like the intro Nadeshot has, I'd easily give you $100.

Minimum I will give you is $20.

Thanks.

You're never going to get anything like that for $20

Good luck though.

Good luck though.

I might very well do this for $20 actually ^.^

Never say never.

I would do this but I'm not a fan of spending time on contests.

This isn't a contest, it is whoever messages me first with top quality work that I like will be paid.

Once someone makes me an intro that I like the thread will be closed.

As of now it's still open.
