Thread: Beta Test - Custom Coded Forum

Exonic - February 23, 2015, 11:52 am

Hi all,

I have made a custom coded forum in my spare time. I made it purely because I enjoy coding and like learning new things. The forums is an absolute shambles coding wise but I only plan to improve. With your help, I could potentially make something decent. The design is horrible but it's only purpose is to give the site some sort of structure. I plan to get a custom theme for the forum in the near future. I want a few users, if possible, to beta test my forum (try break it) so I can get to fixing bugs etc now opposed to later on.

Site URL: gamingmb.net

Thanks,
Exonic

Well, that certainly is impressive. Wish you the best of luck!

dirheist - February 23, 2015, 1:44 pm

Is this based on MyBB? Can I have a look at the source code? None the less pretty fucking cool man.

I suppose it is in a way, but all forums have their similarities. ?

Mr_Devil - February 24, 2015, 2:35 am

Hmm looks sexy ;)

Ive just seen source code and noticed it looks similar to the MyBB

Suggestion:

Get everything lined up properly & get the design fixed :)

The fact that it is custom coded is impressive, props to you. However, the design is boring. You need to find the line between boring and simple. Good job.

Don't know why people hate the design. Its clean, and nice. None of that here is Michael Bay effects in your face crap.

Good job mate, looks awesome, and good luck!

Exonic - March 13, 2015, 3:49 am

The new forum is about 80% finished. I need to finish off the thread display/post bit and get a reporting system going too.

SkyWalk - March 13, 2015, 5:34 am

The page can't be loaded for me :(some problems with the hosting? Or moving to another hosting? Shows only a blank page site gamingmb.net/index.php works, but not gamingmb.net

Nozemi™ - March 13, 2015, 5:42 am

I'd like to see this, this is the most interesting thread I've seen in this section. Please put it online again.

EDIT:

Looked at the reply above me. It looks pretty awesome!

What does the Mod/Admin CP look like?

Exonic - March 13, 2015, 6:40 am

I had a index.html up while I was configuring a few things. It's still in early BETA. I am still to code a few critical features such as editing posts etc.

Edit: You may need to try register a few times if you get the "Incorrect security question" error... This is an error that occurring because questions/answers are held within an array. Security questions will be soon pulled from our database.

It's actually rather obvious, I thought the exact same thing when I saw this thread and the users on the forum in the link.

Exonic - March 14, 2015, 3:18 am

Today I will code the edit post feature and will try implement a BBCode editor too!

Could be better. I'm not saying that I'm a master coder or know a whole lot about coding a forums. The layout isn't the best. It looks clean but when you start paying attention to detail.. you lost my interest. It looks rather unorganized. I'm sure it'll get worked out later though. 7/10

TextTruth - March 14, 2015, 2:16 pm

I like how it's simple and clean. Good job bud.

Mind being more specific please?

Thanks,

For all you fucks saying that the theme is lame, he coded his own forum software.

ocherries - March 14, 2015, 4:46 pm

Amazing forum, Jordan is one of the best developers I've worked with.

Queen.

Thanks for the vote of confidence, Pink Ffloyd. I appreciate it! ?

Exonic - March 19, 2015, 1:12 pm

The forums look quite nice now. The needed features like search etc have been implemented.

Exonic - March 23, 2015, 12:43 pm

Just implemented a feature where the top 3 posters get a rainbow username!

Ideology - March 24, 2015, 5:43 pm

Looks fairly well made. You've done a great job so far. I'm impressed, considering it's just you working on this.

GramHQ - March 24, 2015, 6:54 pm

I remember when this was a gaming forum with the ttg theme. Then you sold it :[
Username wAs Creed

Exonic - March 28, 2015, 1:47 pm

Thanks, guys! I appreciate the kind feedback. ?

ElasticWeed - March 29, 2015, 1:16 pm

Truly amazing!
Never expected to see someone actually making something like this on HF.

thanks, dude but can i ask who you are lol?

Zedgy - March 29, 2015, 6:55 pm

Damn that's sexy as fuck. I want it ;p

idkwhatimdoing - March 29, 2015, 11:10 pm

I call bullshit. This just seems like a heavy edit of MyBB. Even the template system is the same.

By "template system", do you mean tables and various CSS tags/names? Yes, that will be because I'm using my old MyBB theme. Love how people go by front-end, lol. The backend is 100% nothing alike.

SuccessGod - March 31, 2015, 2:21 pm

Looks nice. Make it different than The Tech Game and it will be even better.
