Thread: [\[GIVEAWAY\] Available Domains with Domain/Page Authority](#)

SIM-2626129 - February 23, 2015, 4:50 pm

Hello HF Members,

If any of you are interested, I'll be giving away domain names which are available for registration with good metrics (Domain & Page Authority) and good backlinks (coming from trusted websites).

Check out the sample below:

Of course, this is just a sample, I have thousands of these domains, so be free to PM me. To be fair to all members, I'll limit the giveaway to 1 domain per member.

EDIT: Please PM me to receive a domain and please understand that I can't send niche specific domains as that takes a lot of my time. :)

Have a nice day! ?

I want a domain for finance niche, PM please

Jeff Jordan - February 24, 2015, 7:40 pm

Send me the whole list if you want; I can bulk check each domains TF/CF and other stats.

Also, PA and DA can be manipulated, make sure the domain isn't spammed.

SIM-2626129 - February 25, 2015, 3:15 am

Replied to all PMs and sent some myself to guys who requested domains, but I can't keep on doing that. Guys, please PM me if you want a free domain I can't scrape though comments. Thanks for understanding. ?

Well, I can get it also (have their API), but I prefer not to. Even though some may be spammed by links, at least they are visible(have some BL) and are past-seen by search engines, therefore making you life easier if you want to build a website on top of them.

As for the Majestic, if any of you guys need it to check domains, use <http://www.webmastercare.com/majestic-seo-information/>. It's free.

Pretty much this but I wouldn't give you a list of my domains.

You need to look at TF/CF to an extent.

Anchor text ratios, waybackmachine, TF/CF can also be manipulated by hacked links. There are a number of factors including backlink profiles.

OP if you have a list of domains I am always looking for more domain brokers to add to my Skype and buy sites from for my PBN. Feel free to PM me a domain to test with, preferably one that is a .com, .net, or .org.

Morty - February 25, 2015, 6:21 pm

I never bother going in-depth to TF/CF because no one here even knows what it is lol. And yeah, TF/CF is not everything, the quality backlinks is the main thing.

Which is why I have my brokers focus on that. I only care about the links and I could give two fucks about PR, TF, CF, PA, and DA.
