Thread: [Free Personal Signature \[.PSD\]](#)

princew0w - February 28, 2015, 4:35 am

Hey!

My second "release" on this forum will be a signature I made within some minutes!

The signature preview:

If you have feedback, I'd very much love it B/C of the fact that I just want to get better at what I do. If you use this signature, you're in no need to put my name on it or anything, but I would just love a comment/feedback of what you think of it as it can improve me, and that is worth enough.

If you have other GFX related inquiries do not mind sending me an PM, I'll send skype right away.

For the download:
PM me.

If you want help editing this template, do not hesitate to PM me for help, I could be available for the job!

Good that you are still working and developing your skills. This is good for your second release. I would try to do more than what you are doing though. Add some effects to make it pop.

Thanks for this, I will work on more effects on my next free release. Thanks again!
