Thread: Groups contest

haydrazs - March 1, 2015, 12:55 am

I've been thinking of doing something like this for awhile now.

Something for the official groups of hackforums, i already have a few ideas, it would be a group vs group type contest obviously. Not something retarded like a hack war or something lame, it would be something fun like scavenger hunt, except it would be made pretty hard, winnings probably would be a decent amount of money or some other shit.

It would be something all groups could get involved in, since i feel like groups dont really do much anymore, other than a place for leaders to hold a 6k investment. maybe liven shit up abit?

If it was to go ahead, and not enough groups wanted to do it, i will make it a member contest. Obviously theres many ways this can go wrong, but i wanna know if other groups are even interested or if i should just make it member orientated. holla at me edit: this would be hosted by echo / myself obviously, also mightve made this in wrong section hurr

Wow, what a fantastic idea by no other than our great supreme leader, Kim Jung Haydrazs. May god forever bless him with such creativity and leadership skills.

Canonsx130 - March 1, 2015, 1:10 am

What's the use of making it group only contest? Doesn't make sense since the group types, strength etc varies a lot. And lots of members are part of multiple groups which will make it harder.

well obviously sides will have to be picked, cheaters will be disqualified aswell, and group abilities wont really matter to a certain extent, maybe private investigating.

lenaos - March 1, 2015, 1:17 am

What a fantastic idea based gud Haydrazs.

kamika$e - March 1, 2015, 1:33 am

This would be great. It would bring a competitive scene between the groups which will be exciting in my opinion.

.Matt - March 1, 2015, 6:27 am

Sounds like a good idea haydrazszszszs. I look forward to this.

Astute - March 1, 2015, 6:28 am

I posted an idea for our group in the sf. It wouldn't involve other groups until a later stage.

NoMercy - March 1, 2015, 6:31 am

It's an awesome idea and it would promote people to join groups.

Ulysses S Grant™ - March 1, 2015, 8:39 am

Hell yeah sounds super cool I am interested

Gladly - March 1, 2015, 9:05 am

If we could find something that would connect all of the groups of HF, this would be extremely fun. It'd be like a HackForums field day.

Hydra - March 1, 2015, 11:00 am

I'm all for this, would be fun. I just feel like if it's a scavenger hunt, someone like a staff member should do it because this is HF and everyone, and I mean EVERYONE will bitch that [IF] Echo wins, and you set it up, that you all cheated. It'll be a drama scene and ruin the fun. Someone neutral should do it IMO, just cuts out the bullshit that is waiting to occur.

yeah but the money would be coming from my own pocket, and i obviously wouldnt be taking part in it, or echo members could just be DQd altogether and act as hosts, if a staff member was up for doing it would be much better i agree

We should do Brotherhood's gaming sector VS Nightfall.
Like how we did Respawn VS Infamous.

I think Brotherhood has a gaming sector.

PS4 team will kill Nightfall in any FPS game. The only reason I'd touch a PS4 is for Street Fighter V. Real shit, I'll wreck you on some Xbox One.

prada ? - March 1, 2015, 5:31 pm

ps4 is a funny joke for competitive fps

haydrazs - March 1, 2015, 6:12 pm

smh, gaming contest would be fun but very one sided, echo is full of high rated gamers from csgo / league / WoW any game you can think of.

Echo is way too overpowered. I don't think anyone would be able to compete with us.

haydrazs - March 1, 2015, 7:25 pm

Well, i pm'd some of the leaders for the groups, some have replied uninterested some like the idea and would be willing to join in, some haven't replied yet, if people really want a gaming contest that could be done too, would be easier to plan anyway

prada ? - March 1, 2015, 8:29 pm

As long as the gaming is CoD and not ps3/4 I'm down

Jerv - March 1, 2015, 11:09 pm

Sounds interesting, this should be nice, hmm.

Dean Winchester? - March 2, 2015, 3:45 am

But sure lets do it

If you can arrange a scavenger hunt as hard as the Cicada 3301 hunt, I'm sure you'll find a ton of people who want to do it, although, some groups, based on their subject, will have an advantage.

Cicada 3301 is absolutely insane.. He's right, maybe we could do something like that for Echo.

Neil - March 3, 2015, 7:58 pm

Seems like a great idea, Haydrazs.

I would like to see this happen. With me winning of course ? :^). wink wink assumably a bunch of money, creates this super elaborate online and offline scavenger. Starts with a post on 4Chan with an image, and in that image is some clue. Then from there, you move in and out of the deep web solving clue after clue. There are also QR codes around the world that you need to scan to find the next clue. The clues get ridiculously difficult and require advanced computing knowledge to solve.
