DO NOT DEAL WITH THIS USER:

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2395684>

User contacted me claiming to be able to sell me some XBL codes, seemed kind of sketchy but I figured I'd give him a test to see if he'd run off with the first $20 (of course he did, pathetic).

Oh well, not a big loss but atleast the community knows not to trust this user now.

Ended with him claiming he didn't know what to do or some shit acting clueless.

Proof of BTC transaction.

Let me know if there is any other information I need to provide for this report.

Will do / screen shotting it all now.

Figured I could just do the latest message to save time haha :P
Will update in a few minutes!

Unfortunately since it was through BTC don't think I'll be able to dispute it in anyway, and the user is just ignoring me so reasoning with him just isn't an option :\

Oh well it was only $20, at least I saved some people from buying his 'website' that was for sale for $200+ haha

Legit scam report.
Crack is a fagget.

jujetsue - March 2, 2015, 8:54 am

Vouch, yesterday I was going to sell luke my Xbox account but he seemed sketchy and started talking like a complete "skid".I'm glad I didn't.

The Rook - March 4, 2015, 12:44 pm

Bumping this just to warn users again!

The user is claiming this thread is "resolved"

see here: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4714913>

The issue is not resolved - do not deal with this user!

Figured I should update so no one thinks the issue was resolved and gets scammed!

FawkesSake - March 4, 2015, 1:03 pm

Just opened a scam report on him too for the same exact reason!
