Supervisor - March 1, 2015, 3:43 pm

Hello everyone,

I just recently talked with the admin on Cryptsy and I have an update for everyone. This is really important.

We are #4 now in the listing which is very good, even the admin says how impressive it is up in a day.

BUT, the most important thing is they want to see COMMUNITY SUPPORT and today they were very clear with me on this. What does this means? It means that paid voting by few people basically does not mean anything for them. You understand the difference that having 15 000 vote by 15 000 different people or 15 000 vote by 20 people is totally different.

Use your Free Vote everyone, we are a large community here and I am sure we can get a lot of individual votes which is what we need right now.

All the information you need to know about the voting and the progress is here :

All upcoming news will be posted there.

Thank you.

I would donate my btc to get omc more votes but my wallet is empty. I got very little left in my Paypal and have about 1k in omc. So I can't exactly trade.

Thanks for the update. Nice work on getting us this far. Omnicoin is backed by a large enough community that I'm sure we can get this done.

Aceman - March 1, 2015, 4:04 pm

Hmmm does this mean I should stop buying votes then?

Yes stop for now.

We need individual votes to show community support.

JOJOGANG - March 1, 2015, 4:28 pm

Sounds great! Omnicoin on the rise, we will succeed!

NiktoKan - March 1, 2015, 4:51 pm

The easy way to get more individual vote is Free Giveaway.

RelationShit - March 1, 2015, 6:12 pm

Well

It's official

Fuck you Cryptsy.

Couldn't they mention that earlier? Poor Omni used 1 btc and many others used their money too.

If it wasn't worth it I will say fuck them again.

bai

baiYou're raging when you probably didn't even spend anything. It showed we're serious, we just may need more unique voters to prove it's not just a few people trying to get the coin added. It's perfectly reasonable and if I'm not mad (somebody who paid for votes) then why should you be?

We need individual votes to show community support.

This Might sound lame but we should try to get a sticky post on each section so that people actually come to know about this and then, we can have many "unique" votes and that is exactly wha we want

Pseudonymous - March 2, 2015, 8:18 am

Its basically based upon community which is very good!

Yes, it's good to see they care much about the community than the money ?

Omniscient - March 2, 2015, 3:04 pm

I put up a Tweet on our account in order to gain more votes from individuals.

Bitcoin Life - March 2, 2015, 4:02 pm

Just so you guys know there have been multiple scam accusations against Cryptsy. It is very likely they selectively scam individuals.

If admin can PM all HF members and ask for a favor, I believe the response will be great?

Fudster - March 2, 2015, 6:54 pm

Need a site wide notice or something.

"Help HF get OmniCoin on Cryptsy! (link to thread posted by Omni or whoever)"

Also Why was this guy closed?....lol
