Thread: Where can I find these iPhone cables to dropship?

v1zion - March 1, 2015, 5:10 pm

Any idea where I can them for lightning cables?

Thanks.

edit: please don't reverse search the image, i'm not going to dropship a ~$5 item for $19.

I tried dropshipping before it was a total waste of money nothing can beat ebay's prices.

To dropship? Are you insane?

OP: Here it is for real cheap:

These are dirt cheap, and I believe money can be made if you do this correctly.

Might be worth investing into buying bulk of these along with other cheap things you can find then setting up an eBay shop. Could easily make a few $ per sale.

Take a look at dhgate, its where i source all my bulk goods.

These cables are cheap as shit. They seriously last for like a week or two. It's not worth if you're using them for your own consumption.

You can make some nice profit if you find a good dropshipping site with cheap prices. People are pretty interested in these things.

Sorry to tell you that dropshipping is not allowed to be discussed on HF.
