Thread: Polls Deleted

Omniscient - March 2, 2015, 4:40 pm

All existing polls are deleted. Had to prune them as they are just too buggy. Some bugs still exist in the MyBB code which I'll eventually hunt down.

For now all polls are gone and if you had a poll feel free to start a new one.

Thanks.

Dammit, was just about to do the recent months for the MOTM results in the Member of The Month - Timeline thread. Looks like that's not happening. :/

You just trolled the hell out of MOTM, if there was a troll award you'd be wearing it on your profile now. ?

Gustav. - March 2, 2015, 4:44 pm

Lol, thanks for informing us. I'm sure all of us were wondering on what the heck happened.

mrnapolean1 - March 3, 2015, 5:38 pm

Going to be going thru my threads that I can remember posting a poll on and re posting it.
If its an old thread I might close it and start a new one.

Either way most of these polls are long gone and dead. So no harm in that.

xVulnerable - March 5, 2015, 5:30 am

MOTM got trolled though.

Trisomy 21 - March 5, 2015, 6:59 am

Nobody cares about MOTM theres like 2 people on this site who deserve recognition for anything.

Raz3d - March 5, 2015, 8:25 am

Never used the poll before, but glad it's being fixed for known bugs.

This had me imagining a trollface as an award for trolling if there was one. Would be great, honestly.

Anyway, is this information given by Omni to suggest that you could evade post pruning by having polls and poll posts in the past? Could have been, but obviously it can be and/or will be fixed going forward.
