How long have you been playing Runescape?:

Since 2007.

How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?:

1-8 hours. I know, strange, isn't it? Basically if I'm not in the gym (or studying), I'm playing. Some days I go to the gym and some days I do not, so it can be anything between that interval.

I recently got 99 agility on my ironman so once I've set myself a goal I'm going to work for it and eventually reach it.

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?:

I can't really say I deserve a spot. I've been in Nightfall before but got kicked out for inactivity (an assumption).

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?:

Sure am. I'd enjoy grinding/bossing/doing stuff with a bunch of people with the same interest.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?:

I generally enjoy helping people and Runescape is something I've been playing since I was a little kid. My past in Runescape is quite 'colorful' so I know at least something (if not everything) about every aspect of the game. So if you guys are looking for someone that is helpful, friendly and actually knows shit about the game then I'm your guy.

Thx for reading. ?

How long have you been playing Runescape?: Since 2008, so that's 7 years coming up in December.

How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?: This varies depending on the deadlines that come up, typically 1-2 hours per day, but 5+ hours each day on a weekend.

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?:

I'll let the game time speak for itself.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?: I'm going to give the honest opinion rather than the bullshit 99% of people will write here.

I'll give each event a shot if I can make it (due to timing). If I find the event interesting and fun then I will attend similar future events. On the other side if the event is something like agility grinding where people are busy clicking rather than socializing and having fun then I'm not likely to attend a future event that is similar to that one.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?:

Unlike most other players, the my game time is not purely grinding. Rather than focusing on non stop playing in order to achieve levels I much prefer to do them in my own time so this keeps the game fun, which is why we all play it, right?

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?: Yes, I'm always online.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?: Well, I'm not near special in the least, but I think I am! Jokes aside, I've been a gamer for almost my entire life, that means something atleast. I'm a laid back person, and I don't really get pissed off at things, I'm looking for a good time, and runescape was my early life back in elementary school, I remember Ice Barrages and Pking, it was the life, so when I saw this thread, I knew I had to apply. The only thing truly unique is possibly my will to have fun, I always strive to have it, because school sucks and I want to maximize my entertainment purposes at home, and I believe Nightfall would be a good choice for me. I love to have fun, and just have a good time overall, I know nightfall can provide with and I can supply it right back.

edit: recently got back in osrs due to people playing at my school, should get my stats up quick.
Age (Optional): 17, I consider myself very mature. Location (Optional): Good 'Ol America.
Timezone: Eastern How long have you been playing Runescape?: 10 years How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?: at least 4 hours Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?: I am probably one of the best RS players you will find, I'm in the 300th ranked clan in the world with only 90 members. I got to a 850 total level in osrs within the first 2 months of it being out. Keep in mind back in that time 1m of osrs was 50m RS3. I got to 83 fletching, ranked 1 in the world for awhile until I quit playing osrs.

RS3 Total level: 2127

some nice stats: 99 magic, 99 fletching, 99 cook, 94 fire making, 94 dungeoneering, 85 summoning, 94+ in attack, def, hp, str.

my bank: 110m cash stack, 60m+ in items. Did a giveaway of 300m 2 years ago, just started rebuilding my bank, 4 months ago.

OSRS Total level: 876 (note: I only played the first 2-3 months of it being out, haven't played since then)

I also was the 10th person to complete monkey madness, and one of the first people to obtain a fighter torso. Was featured on Runescapes youtube channel.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?: Yes! :D been busy lately but will always be glad to join! Why should you be chosen over the other applications?: I took time in making it look good, also added graphics. :) But the big reason is because of how knowledgeable I am in the game of Runescape. I watch RS youtube videos daily from big channels, such as spacrmac, AlkanRS, A friend, etc... I used to be active on the RS forums which you can find much of anymore, I know all new recent updates, whats is happening in the game, a cornucopia of methods to money making, boss fighting, and much more things in the game. I was able to obtain all three tokar kal capes with low skills, and noob equipment. Im in a clan that has an active 10 maxed members on 24/7. Could be useful for any events you guys do. Im friends with 8 player mods and one Jmod (don't know how this really helps but is kind of cool). I could go on for days talking about Runescape, giving advice on it, how its impacted me, anything really about the game. :P

This is a pic of a pure account I made along time ago.

How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?:

2-4 hours depending on workload. Usually about 10 hours grinding on weekends.

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?:

Honestly I don't think I 'deserve' a spot. There are people who deserve the post more than me. I love the game and have just gotten back into it and I love the HF community and want to get more involved. I debated going the minecraft recruitment thread but I'm enjoying runescape more at this point, even though my stats don't really represent that haha. I played the game when I was 7 or 8 years old and absolutely fell in love with it and the community that surrounded it. The people I played with back then were just amazing, and I'm hoping to rekindle that experience.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?:

I would fucking love to :). As I said In love this community.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?:

Well looking at the other applications is pretty daunting. I don't see myself getting picked but that might be just me being a pessimist. I guess I'm a pretty interesting character and overall a nice person? And I'm getting pretty involved in RS so yeah. :) I also get very dedicated to group activities and if accepted, will be an awesome member of the group. I try to be as active on HF as I can, and with the holidays coming up and some more time in hospital possible for me (spinal surgery gone wrong) I can see myself spending upwards of 12 hours a day.

How long have you been playing Runescape?

I've been playing RuneScape on and off or the vast majority of my life, 9 years. I started in 2006, I discovered the game through my siblings & friends at school who had shown an interest in the game; ever since then I've been hooked, even though my friends disconnected from the game all together.

I was an extremely enthusiastic player back in the OSRS/Pre-EoC era, I would grind almost all day; lacking sleep and usually walking into school half-dead. Admittedly RS did interfere with my social life and was partially one of the reasons I decided to let it go in late 2012. After doing so I tried to inhibit myself from playing RuneScape and I was surprisingly succesful, probably due to the recent updates which stopped me from playing.

However, with the news of OSRS I immediately felt the urge to play OSRS rise again; and nostalgia hit me like a wall, obviously I did take breaks as I entered the exam part of my school years, more specifically my GCSE's.

How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?: I do have school on weekdays however I'm able to fit in roughly 2 - 3 hours a day when I do have school; although on weekends I usually grind XP all day, around 8 - 9 hours on Saturday/Sunday (granted I'm not invited anywhere, which usually I'm not, heh.)

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?

I love the prospect of a RuneScape based group, I know Nightfall is not specifically RuneScape however I'd be extremely active in the RS aspect of it. I'm also aware that it's partially a lounge group which suits me perfectly, I'm active in the lounge section of HF and tend to post in the forum daily.

I'm also in two other groups and I believe I'm one of the most active posters in both, I'm able to keep up activity in the subforums & promote it as a whole. Aside from posting I also believe I'd be a good representation of the Nightfall group, I believe myself to be a high quality member and can portray that even more so through Nightfall. I've always loved the Nightfall group (pfft, not just because of the userbar ?) but because of the high quality users that are in the group, I'd like to make a name of myself here at HF and I trust I can do that by being apart of the Nightfall group. RuneScape is also my second highest post activity forum.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?:

Definitely, as long as I fit the requirements! (I'm kind of poop at PKing.)

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?:

There's nothing to say I should be, however I can assure you I'd be an extremely dedicated Nightfall member. I'd be able to keep up activity in the subforum, and as I've already mentioned, I'd be able to promote it.

Again, I may be repeating myself, however I trust I'd be a good representation of the Nightfall group. I believe myself to be a high quality member (pfft, you're modest - shut up) although grammar doesn't define a member as high quality, I don't lack in that aspect; I believe my grammar is of top notch (ahh, very modest indeed) I've always been a big Literature fan and dedicate alot of my time to perfecting my English. I admit that grammar plays no special part in promoting a member however I thought it was worth mentioning. And I know I may come across as a bit of a douche through this application, however I'm trying to sell myself to you, I'd honestly love to be a member of this group. I'm an extremely passionate RuneScape player, you can see that through the years I've been playing and my progress threads (then why haven't they been updated? ?.)

I'll cut it short here, I don't want you to be reading an essay. I'll leave on a joke since it's become a bit of a habit:

'Your mum is like the Al-Kharid gate, 10 gp entry' (pfft, never heard that before.)

On a sidenote you should know I'm taking a break from OSRS for a week or two, primarily because of my upcoming GCSE exams. However I'm still able to offer advice to anyone who asks for it in the subforum & can still provide suitable answers in the RS subforum of Nightfall.

My current account is ~2565 days

My second oldest account is:

I don't remember when my first account was created and I don't remember the details of it.

How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?: At least 1-2 hours a day double that on the weekends although I am not a great grinder so I do loose a lot of time talking or walking around.

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?: I'm looking for a community to play runescape with, I used to play a lot with my friends but unfortunately very few of them actually still play so I'm all alone, and we all know runescape is better when playing with people.

So if you're looking fir someone to play chat and have fun count me in ;)

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?: Yes I would love to.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?: I like having fun in the game, I'm not great doing a single thing for a long time so I don't usually grind skills a lot I just train what I want.

I like chatting in game a lot playing minigames or doing fun stuff around rs.

So accept me if you're looking for someone that enjoys the game and likes to play it. Maybe not the greatest of pkers or stats but someone fun :P

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?:

RS section in Nightfall & 11+ years experience on RS; I feel I know majority of the things people need to know to become a pro on RS. I've been around a while, and learned everything about the game. It was my life growing up. I can teach anyone what they need to know, and help them out.

I took a break for a few years to get through school, so I lost a bit of skilling time. I started up again a few years ago and I'm trying to get caught back up.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?:

If possible, yes.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?:

I shouldn't. No one should. Realistically I'm sure you're selecting more than one person. I should be chosen as one of those people though because I have the experience and a high knowledge of the RuneScape world, money making methods, etc... It's as simple as that. I'm willing to answer any questions people have regarding the game.

Anything else:

Basically as mentioned, I am an RS veteran still with my original account from 2004. I spent my teen years on RuneScape. It was the love of my life. I'm taking this opportunity to apply to be part of this group to share with people the best options they have to accomplish their goals on RS. Anything from questing, to money making, treasure trails, monster killing, or just navigating the RuneScape world, I can help out.

Lastly, I'm on mobile, so I can't login to grab my stats, so I logged them on another site. Should be able to login properly tomorrow.

That's not always the case. OSRS is largely money based and money-making is alot harder than it used to be (well for some.) I've been running nats for the past week now & I've only managed to make 3M over 7 days.

the past week now & I've only managed to make 3M over 7 days.No, just no. I played OSRS and I got to lv 105 with ease prior to quitting and was rich as hell. The problem is you're running nats which is bitch work.

Before you flame me I was 40 levels off my trim comp cape with most requirements done including 3k Castle Wars games. Played from 2004-2013 so I do know a fair bit about the game. ?

Wyverns = 1M/hr (Not that high reqs, 70 Slayer and at least decent combat stats.)

Zulrah safest boss in the fucking game (takes 1 min to actually finish): About 500-700K/hr? maybe even more.

Black chinchompas with at least 99 hunter is almost 500K-600K/hr.

There is a lot more, lol.

Hehe Fictional, cutie. Anyway I don't have the requirements for Wyverns or Zulrah as of yet :c.

Hey! I would never flame a Canadian, they're too nice :3. Admittedly running nats may be bitch work however there isn't many other methods available for me at the moment but Slayer, and even that has to be heavily invested in with money.

You build up, bit by bit, that's what I did. You get enough for gear, for food, and train up while profiting from the tasks you get assigned while training slayer. Eventually you'll reach 70, have enough money to get small loads of wyvern bones, then repeat. Buy better gear, be gaining levels, kill more wyverns, fill whole inventory during trips. Repeat til you're not longer poor.

How long have you been playing Runescape?: Since I was young, only started OS recently.

How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?: 2-4

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?:

I feel as though I deserve a spot as I like to dedicate my time to specific areas. I may not be the best in the game, nor the worst, but I feel as though my professionalism and general social skills can better it.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?: Why ofcourse, my fine sir.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?: I feel as though I should be chosen over other applicants as I will contribute to the group and help better this newly RS part of it. I've been wanting to enter a group for a long time and NightFall seems perfect. Also the fact that this is RS specific I like as it is a game I enjoy and I can now have friends on there...Hah.

Heh, thought about applying yourself? Thanks for the advice, I'll get started with slayer right away; admittedly I may have been postponing it out of sheer laziness, as you mentioned. I'll most likely grind 70 slayer over the weekend. ?

How long have you been playing Runescape?: I've been playing runscape since 2004-2005 so around 10 years.

How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?: depends really some days it could be 2 hours, others 15 lol.

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?: I've been in the group before and Loved it, sadly I got kicked out because I didn't post in the sub-forum enough, I play nearly all the main-stream pc games and I think it would be fun to play with other Nightfall members.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?: ofc, I don't get off pc lol.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?: I thing you should pick me because I'm a great laugh and I've already made friends with some nightfall members anyway. I also love to pk and stake so if any other hf members can give me tips it would great.

Yoshi - March 6, 2015, 3:29 pm

I am a 18 year old dutch boii, timezone GMT+1.

Been playing RuneScape for 8 years now, I only play Rs3 at the moment because I am sucessful in it.

I have played 07 when it came out tho but i got banned after 2 months and didn't feel like starting all over again.

I am not playing as much as I used to because I got school till 5 PM everyday which only leaves me like 1 hour to play everyday.

I am a very experienced PVMer/staker and would love to teach you all some lessons ;). Always up for some PKing in legacy too, thats the main reason why i played RS back in the days.

Not sure if I can participate in game nights since i don't have much free time atm. Can't wait to play/talk with ya all.

Peace out?

Wyverns all depends on your ranged level/stats, at most it's 500k a hour.

Prices have really fluctuated.

Age (Optional): 18

Location (Optional): US

Timezone: CST

How long have you been playing Runescape?: Something around 9 years.

How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?: Not much lately. I play a lot of RSPS. I've never had an actual group to play with.

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?: I have an insane amount of in-game knowledge. I love Jagex and I love Runescape. I think a group to play with would be a really cool thing to do.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?: If it's something like boss hunting, I would love it! PvP, not so much. I would also suggest Ironman competitions. Everyone starts from scratch and competes to get the highest total in a week/month/etc.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?: I've never stopped following Runescape and even though I quit, I still watch YouTubers, streamers and keep up with the latest updates. I would contribute to the sub-forum, the group, and to those who play Runescape. I would really love to be in the group!

How much time do you spend on average (daily) playing?: Around 8 -10 hours.

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?: I wouldn't say I deserve a spot. But I've been playing Runescape since my young childhood so I have extensive knowledge about the game.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights?: Of course, I would love to play with fellow Hack Forums members.

Why should you be chosen over the other applications?:

On my main account 'Vegeta' I'm almost 100% maxed on RS3 and never have I botted. I've just started on RS07 so I'm not that high up in stats. These are my current 07 stats, but like I said I just started. I may try and become a Dharok PKer. Then again at the moment I'm seeing how far I can get without questing. I also spend a lot of my time in game trying to figure out the best possible methods to obtain the most exp/money in a smaller amount of time.

You could of course go and apply for Minecraft or LoL if you play either.
