Activity isn't enforced, but if we kick you for being inactive, don't cry.

If you have any deal disputes, link them with an explanation. Probably wont give a fuck though.

Application Guideline

Making a video or w/e won't increase your chances. I'm looking for active players, not try hards.

I would say Le Blanc, mid.

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?:

I think I would deserve a spot in Nightfall because I'm very addicted to League of Legends. I'm playing on a daily basis and trying to be better with the day. I'm also watching a lot of streams and youtube videos in order to improve myself in playing League of Legends.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights? (Will involve joining the Teamspeak and playing with others):

How long have you been playing?: Started 5 months ago and recently got active again.

Which role and champion would you say you "main"?: Bottom with Ashe, I'm usually support and I work great in duos.

Why do you deserve a spot in Nightfall?: I was apart of Nexus and I was in many games with a few friends who were also in the group. I usually don't post in the LoL section because all I see is Skin code giveaways and whatnot and I can't really engage in discussion that I desire. I wish to learn more because everytime I try another champ other then Ashe I suck complete dick and people get toxic with me about not knowing how to play, I'm only good with Ashe and average I get like 10+ kills a game and a few deaths and like 20+ assists. I want to be able to have game nights in which members could tell me what kinds of builds to get when I play, and what position is better for that champion.

Are you willing to participate in Game nights? (Will involve joining the Teamspeak and playing with others): Yes of course, that's why I wish to join.
